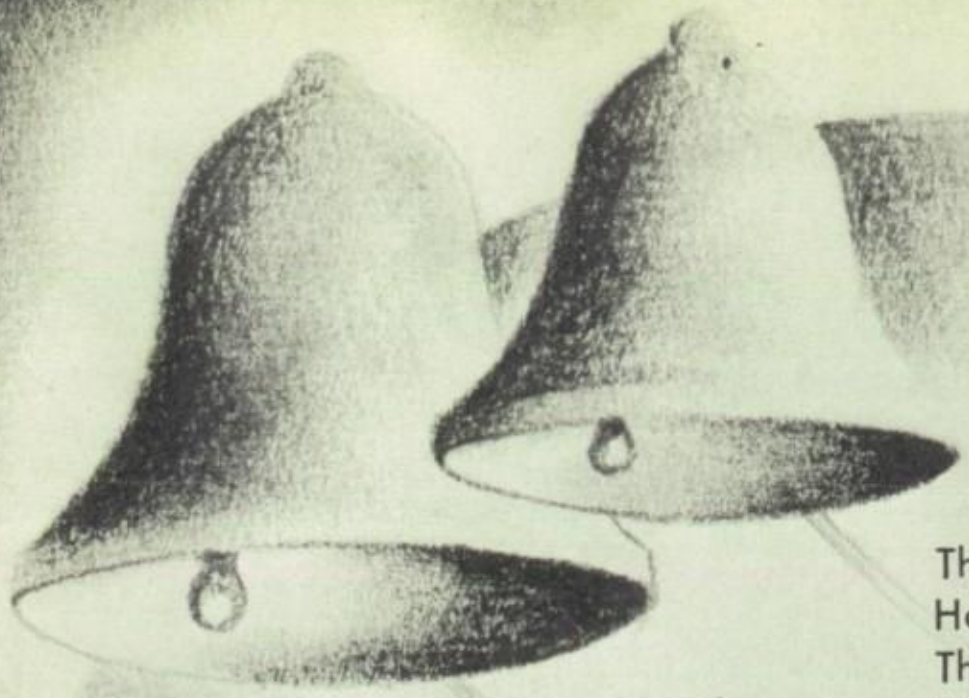
Everyone who reads this BlueBook will admire and appreciate the Art work and typing on the division pages. However, only we, who worked on this book, know what an immense debt of gratitude we owe to the artists and typists.

Your BlueBook was made by hand. Every picture, word, and in the larger type, even every letter was put into position by hand. In the Book's printing, the offset process merely reproduced the page as it was submitted by the Staff. The time spent in taking and processing picture, writing, typing copy, proofreading, and setting it up is almost beyond estimate. The Staff is compensated, however, in knowing the BlueBook will provide you, the reader, with as many hours of enjoyment and memories as the years go by.

Senior portraits, underclassmen, and choral pictures, by O'Neils; the rest by our interested pastor, Msgr. Price.



THE BELLS OF ST. MARY'S

The Bells of St. Mary's,
Have you heard them, really heard them?
They should mean so much to you.
Why, you ask --
Because they rule our every minute.
Their chimes serve as a call, a signal,
Have you obeyed their voice.....?
Have you heard them when they called you to the classroom, to your books?
Have you heard their call to pleasure?
I'm sure you have.

You've heard the referee's shrieking whistle at a hot and crowded basketball game.
You've heard the doorbell ring as you were smoothing the folds of your brand - new party dress.
You've heard the chimes on Christmas day, you know, when you feel so -- warm inside.....
But most urgent is their call when they bid us to adore.
Have you heard them when they told you that Christ was dying once more at Mass?
Have you heard them when they said: "Come, God awaits you" ?
Have you heeded their advice, or closed up tightly
Your ears and heart?
Bells will always be with us.....
Perhaps they'll chime for us some morning
On our wedding day.
Or the ordination bell will tell
of another priest of God.
Or perhaps the factory whistle will call us to our livelihood.
We don't know. That knowledge is God's alone.
But we must listen and Let the bells of Her who bore Him help us on our journey Home.....

Most Holy Father

The Rt.
Rev. Msgr. John J. Price
Pastor of St. Mary Church, Akron Ohio.
humbly prostrate at the feet of Your Holiness begs for all the members of the Class of 1955 of St. Mary's High School, a Special Apostolic Blessing on the occasion of their Graduation.

SS. mus Dominus Noster Pius PP. XII benigniter concedat
Apostolicam Benedictionem cuilibet nostrum pignus
Et Aedibus Vaticanis in festo Paschae 10 Aprilis 1955
+ Fidelis Venini
Antiqua Adamus

MOST HOLY FATHER, humbly do we DEDICATE this, our BLUE BOOK, to you.

With particular, filial affection do we call you our Pope, the POPE of OUR lifetime.

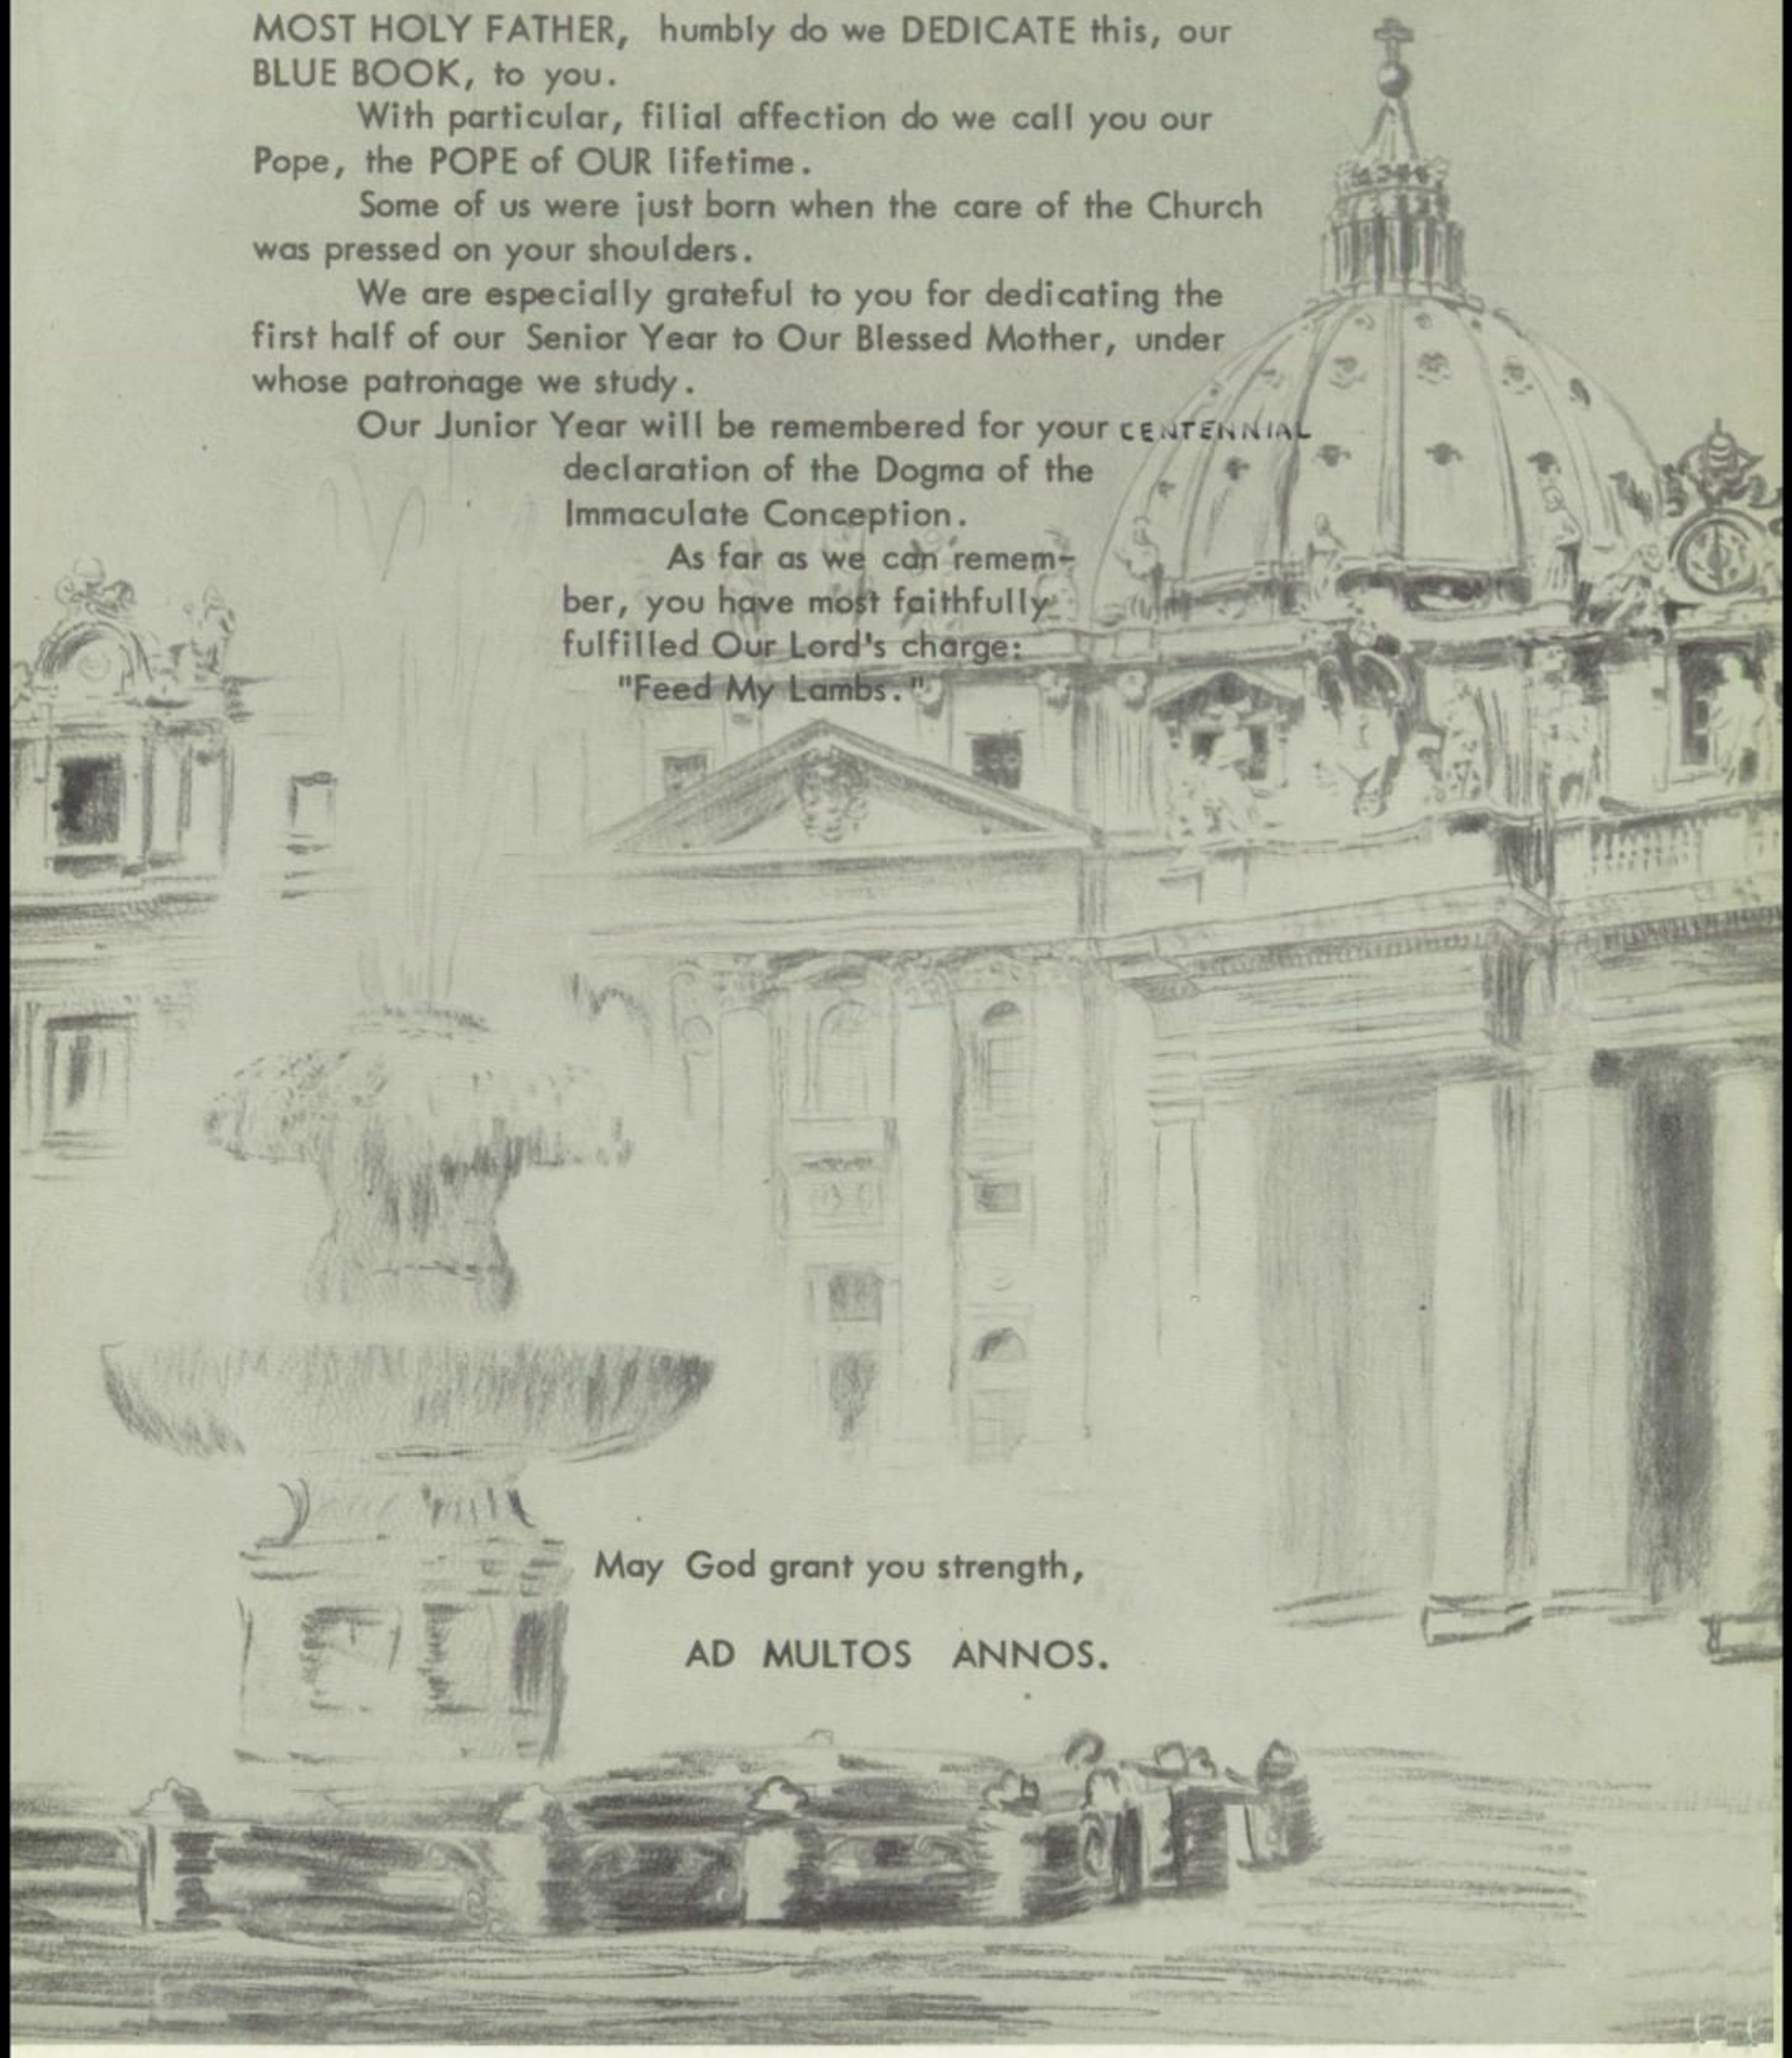
Some of us were just born when the care of the Church was pressed on your shoulders.

We are especially grateful to you for dedicating the first half of our Senior Year to Our Blessed Mother, under whose patronage we study.

Our Junior Year will be remembered for your CENTENNIAL declaration of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception.

As far as we can remember, you have most faithfully fulfilled Our Lord's charge:

"Feed My Lambs."



May God grant you strength,

AD MULTOS ANNOS.

They have the truth and spend their lives in giving it to others. They use the art of communication for the purpose for which it was meant--conveying knowledge, counseling, and teaching. They lift humanity to a higher, nobler level; they lift humanity closer to God.

Who has ever been able to repay a teacher? No one. No one has been able to repay that which he cannot measure; so we cannot repay our teachers. We cannot measure happiness over the years; we cannot clearly count and define the fruits of our education, we can be grateful. And we are; we are grateful when we enjoy a good book, we are grateful when we see beauty in the world around us; we are grateful for what they have made for us.

And yet what do they ask in return? The light of knowledge; learning in our eyes...a happy fruitful Christian life...

May God bless them and their work and make easy their journey to their reward...

Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. Price

The administrator of our beloved school, has kept pace with its every growing need. He has not, however, been too preoccupied with his duties to prevent him from taking an active and interested part in our school activities. It is he whom we must thank for most of the photography in our book.

PRIESTS FACULTY

Priests...

Men of God...Dedicated to teaching others the Way, the Truth, and the Life...Their life is not theirs but ours and God's and they spend it teaching, guiding, loving, punishing, and forgiving...

Two thousand years ago Jesus Christ said, "Come, follow me." They came and they followed and they taught others to follow...

They strengthen and nourish our faith and our supernatural life with the sacraments...

Thank you, O God; thank you for that first Christ and all the others you have sent us after Him...

Through the years we have them, know them, yet only in later life do we learn to love them. When we begin to understand life do we begin to appreciate our teachers...

As the years go by, we begin to understand what they've been to us; Father, Mother, psychologist, disciplinarian, always friend...

We begin to understand the priceless gift of knowledge they have given us. Knowledge of the earth, of man, of God. They have lighted the torch that will illuminate our path to God...

They have told us the message of the bells...

And yet, what is their highest reward? The light of knowledge in our eyes...

The Bells of St. Mary's will always stir in our hearts a gratitude, a love for YOU...

On graduation night we will hear the bells of St. Mary's for the last time. Their peel will beckon to a few to dedicate their lives to His services. Others will continue on for further study, and still others will enter the married life.

Bells . . . having stories only they can reveal. Stories of love, sorrow, happiness, and tragedy. Usually one final sentence is heard, "I could have done better. Why did I waste precious time?" Yes, this is the note to heed; do your best and the rest will follow.

Graduation is the time for recalling memories; report cards, science projects, dances, Junior Prom, and the ring ceremony.

Graduation - an occasion for mixed emotions; the satisfaction of a job well done saddened by the realization that something has ended, never to be re-lived. All the homework, occasional eighth-period, working on the Crusader and Bluebook, or participating in sports, has left an indelible mark in our hearts, which will not be easily erased.

Did we do our best? Did we bring joy to the bells which guided us in the many stages of our school life? What are they going to say about us?

They will tell of books and studies, friends and companionship, parties and football games, the knowledge we acquired . . . They will tell of four happy, fruitful years of physical, mental, and moral development. And as they have told of the ones before us, so will they chime of us.

RELIGION

Each day as we knelt before the Altar of God, the tinkle of a small handbell drew our attention to the most solemn parts of the Mass.

At the Offertory we had made an offering of our hearts and all the course of our day, thus casting little drops of water into the wine. Then in the silent love and adoration we united with Christ in the offering of Himself to His Father in the most mystic and holiest of sacrifices. Later the Bell invited us to make our union with Christ a physical reality in the Communion of the Mass, and in this act all others were united with us.

All this the little handbell told us, and more. Its silvery chime brought us the promise of the highest rewards ever to belong to the heart and soul of man.

Through these great moments of our lives, the Queen of Heaven smiled upon us and elevated our personal offering to something more noble, more rich, more worthy of Infinite Majesty. May we live the sacred union we entered during those years at St. Mary until it is completed in Heaven with Christ and Mary.

A NEW YEAR and NEW HOMES to VISIT, Senior Class Officers, President Norman Picard, Vice President Pat Siwik, Secretary Joan Weigand, and Treasurer John Rainey start the Fatima Virgin on her way.

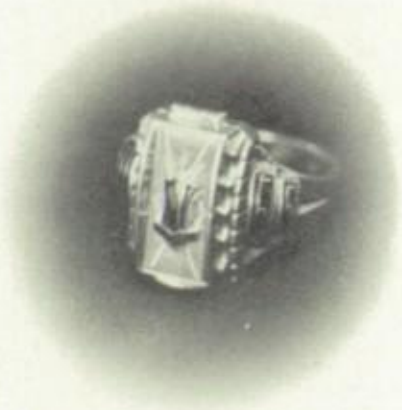
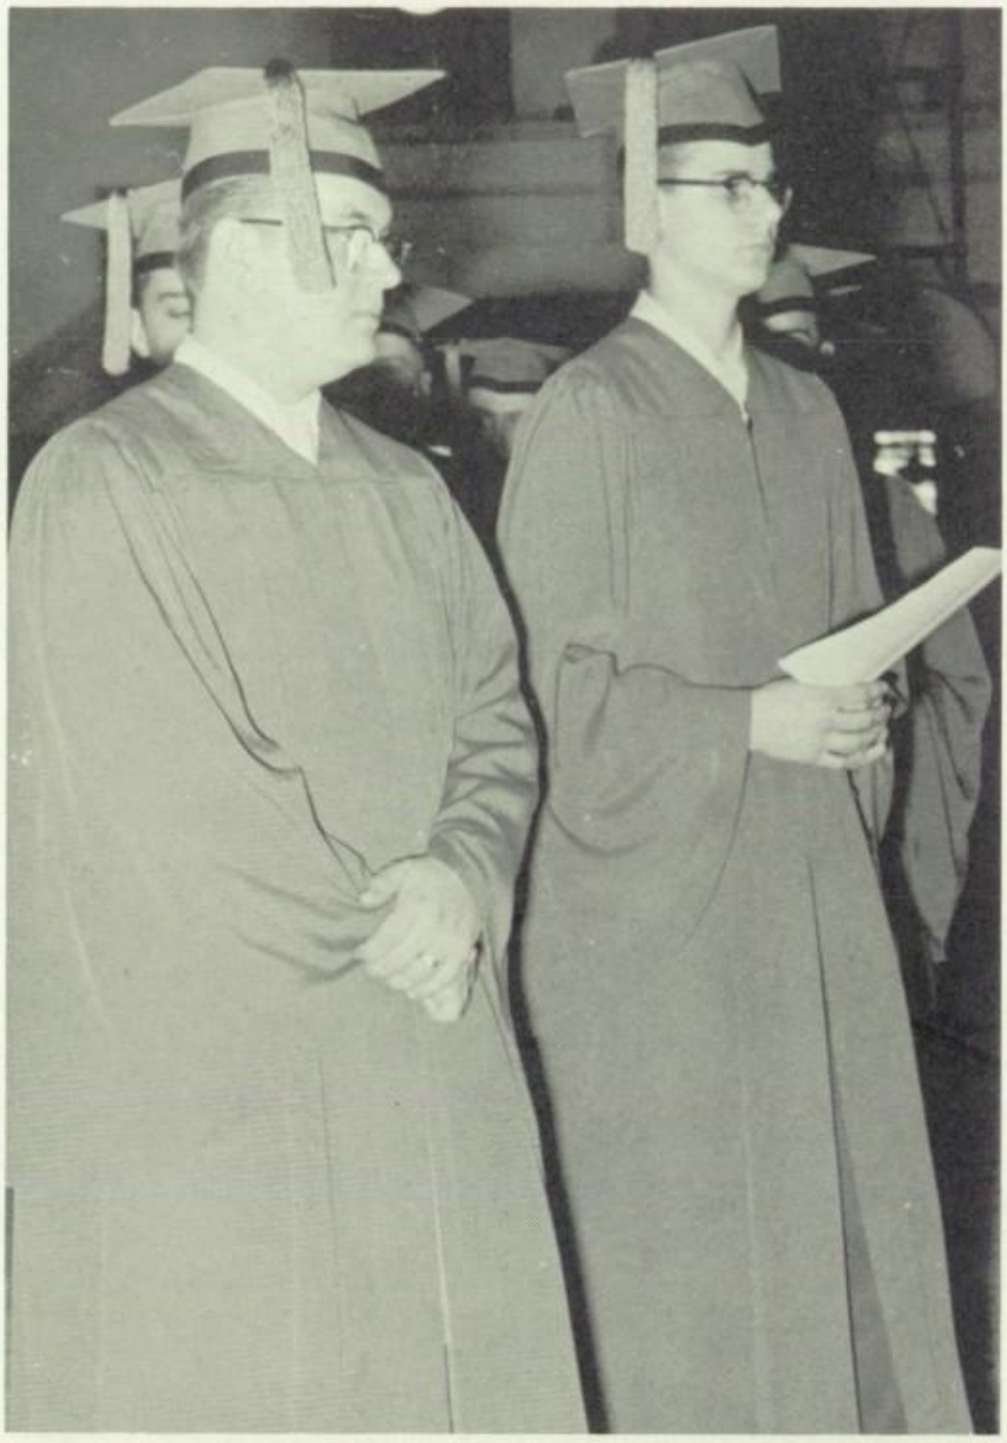
"Your class rings symbolize your Catholic Education", were the words spoken by Monsignor Price. Here to receive their blessed rings are from left to right Pat Mark, Joe Stith, Betty Zuendle, and Charlene Herman.



ADMIRING THEIR RINGS at the reception after the ring ceremony are Charlene Herman, Monsignor Price, Charlene Strottner, and Alice Dominic.

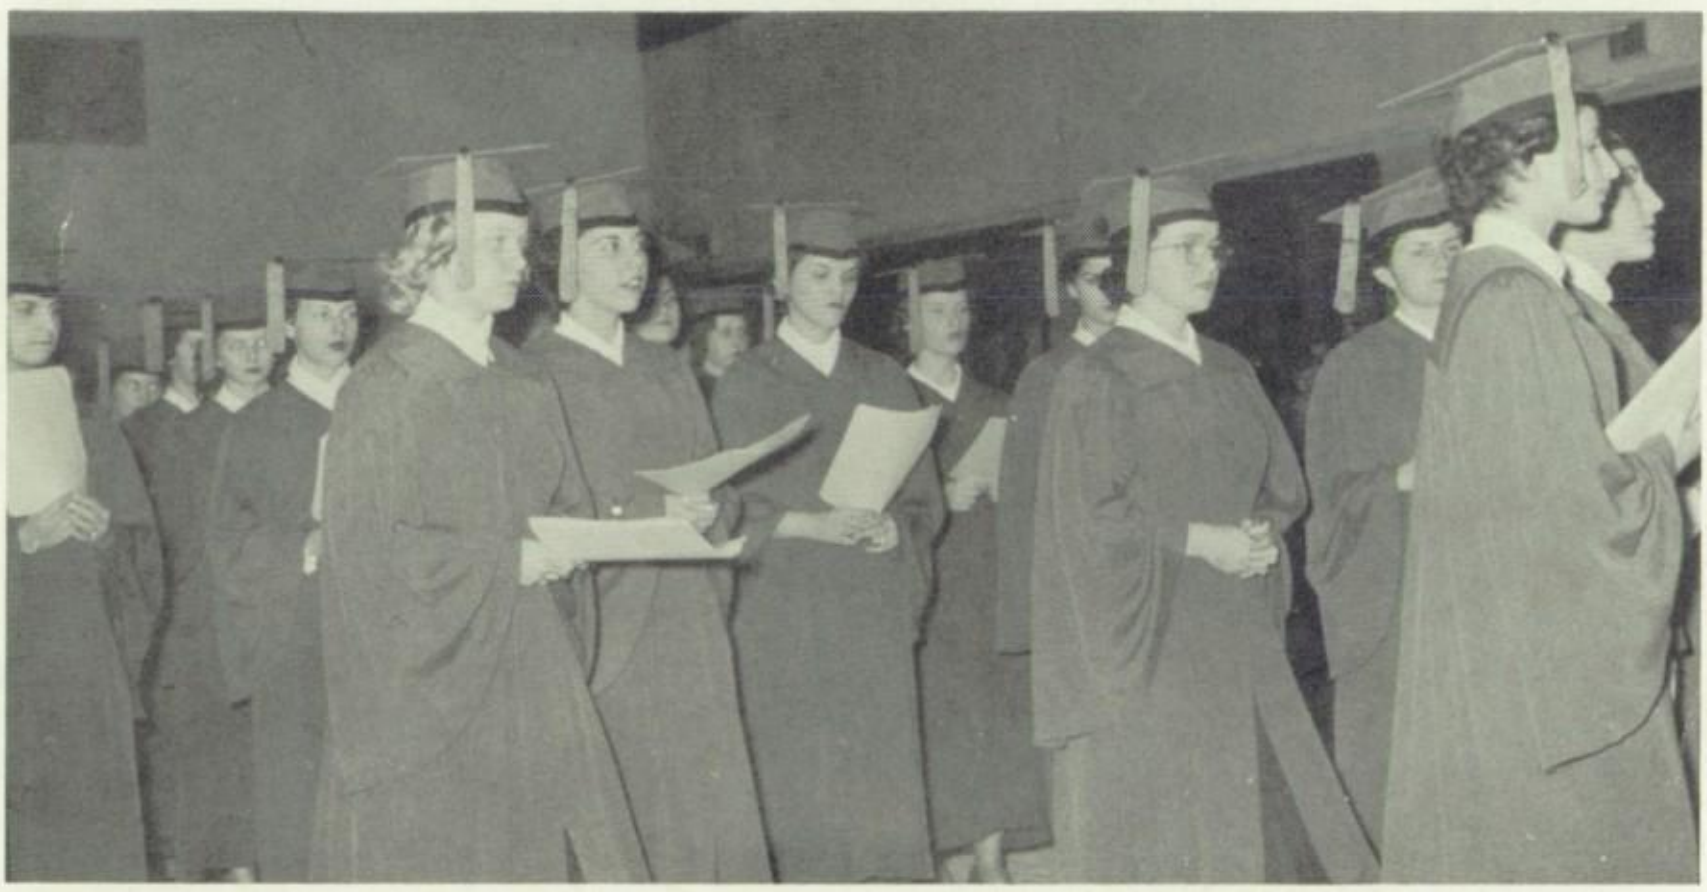
After the Ceremony...

PARENTS, FACULTY, and STUDENTS have an informal gathering following ring ceremony in the auditorium.



MARY BOOKS

CLASS of "55" CLAD IN CAP and gown presented their Marian Year Books to Our Lady on November 30, beginning of the novena in honor of the feast of the Immaculate Conception.



Prefect Tom Mills, Vice Prefect Mary Lou Brennan, Secretary Mary Ann Coffman, Treasurer Jim Oser.

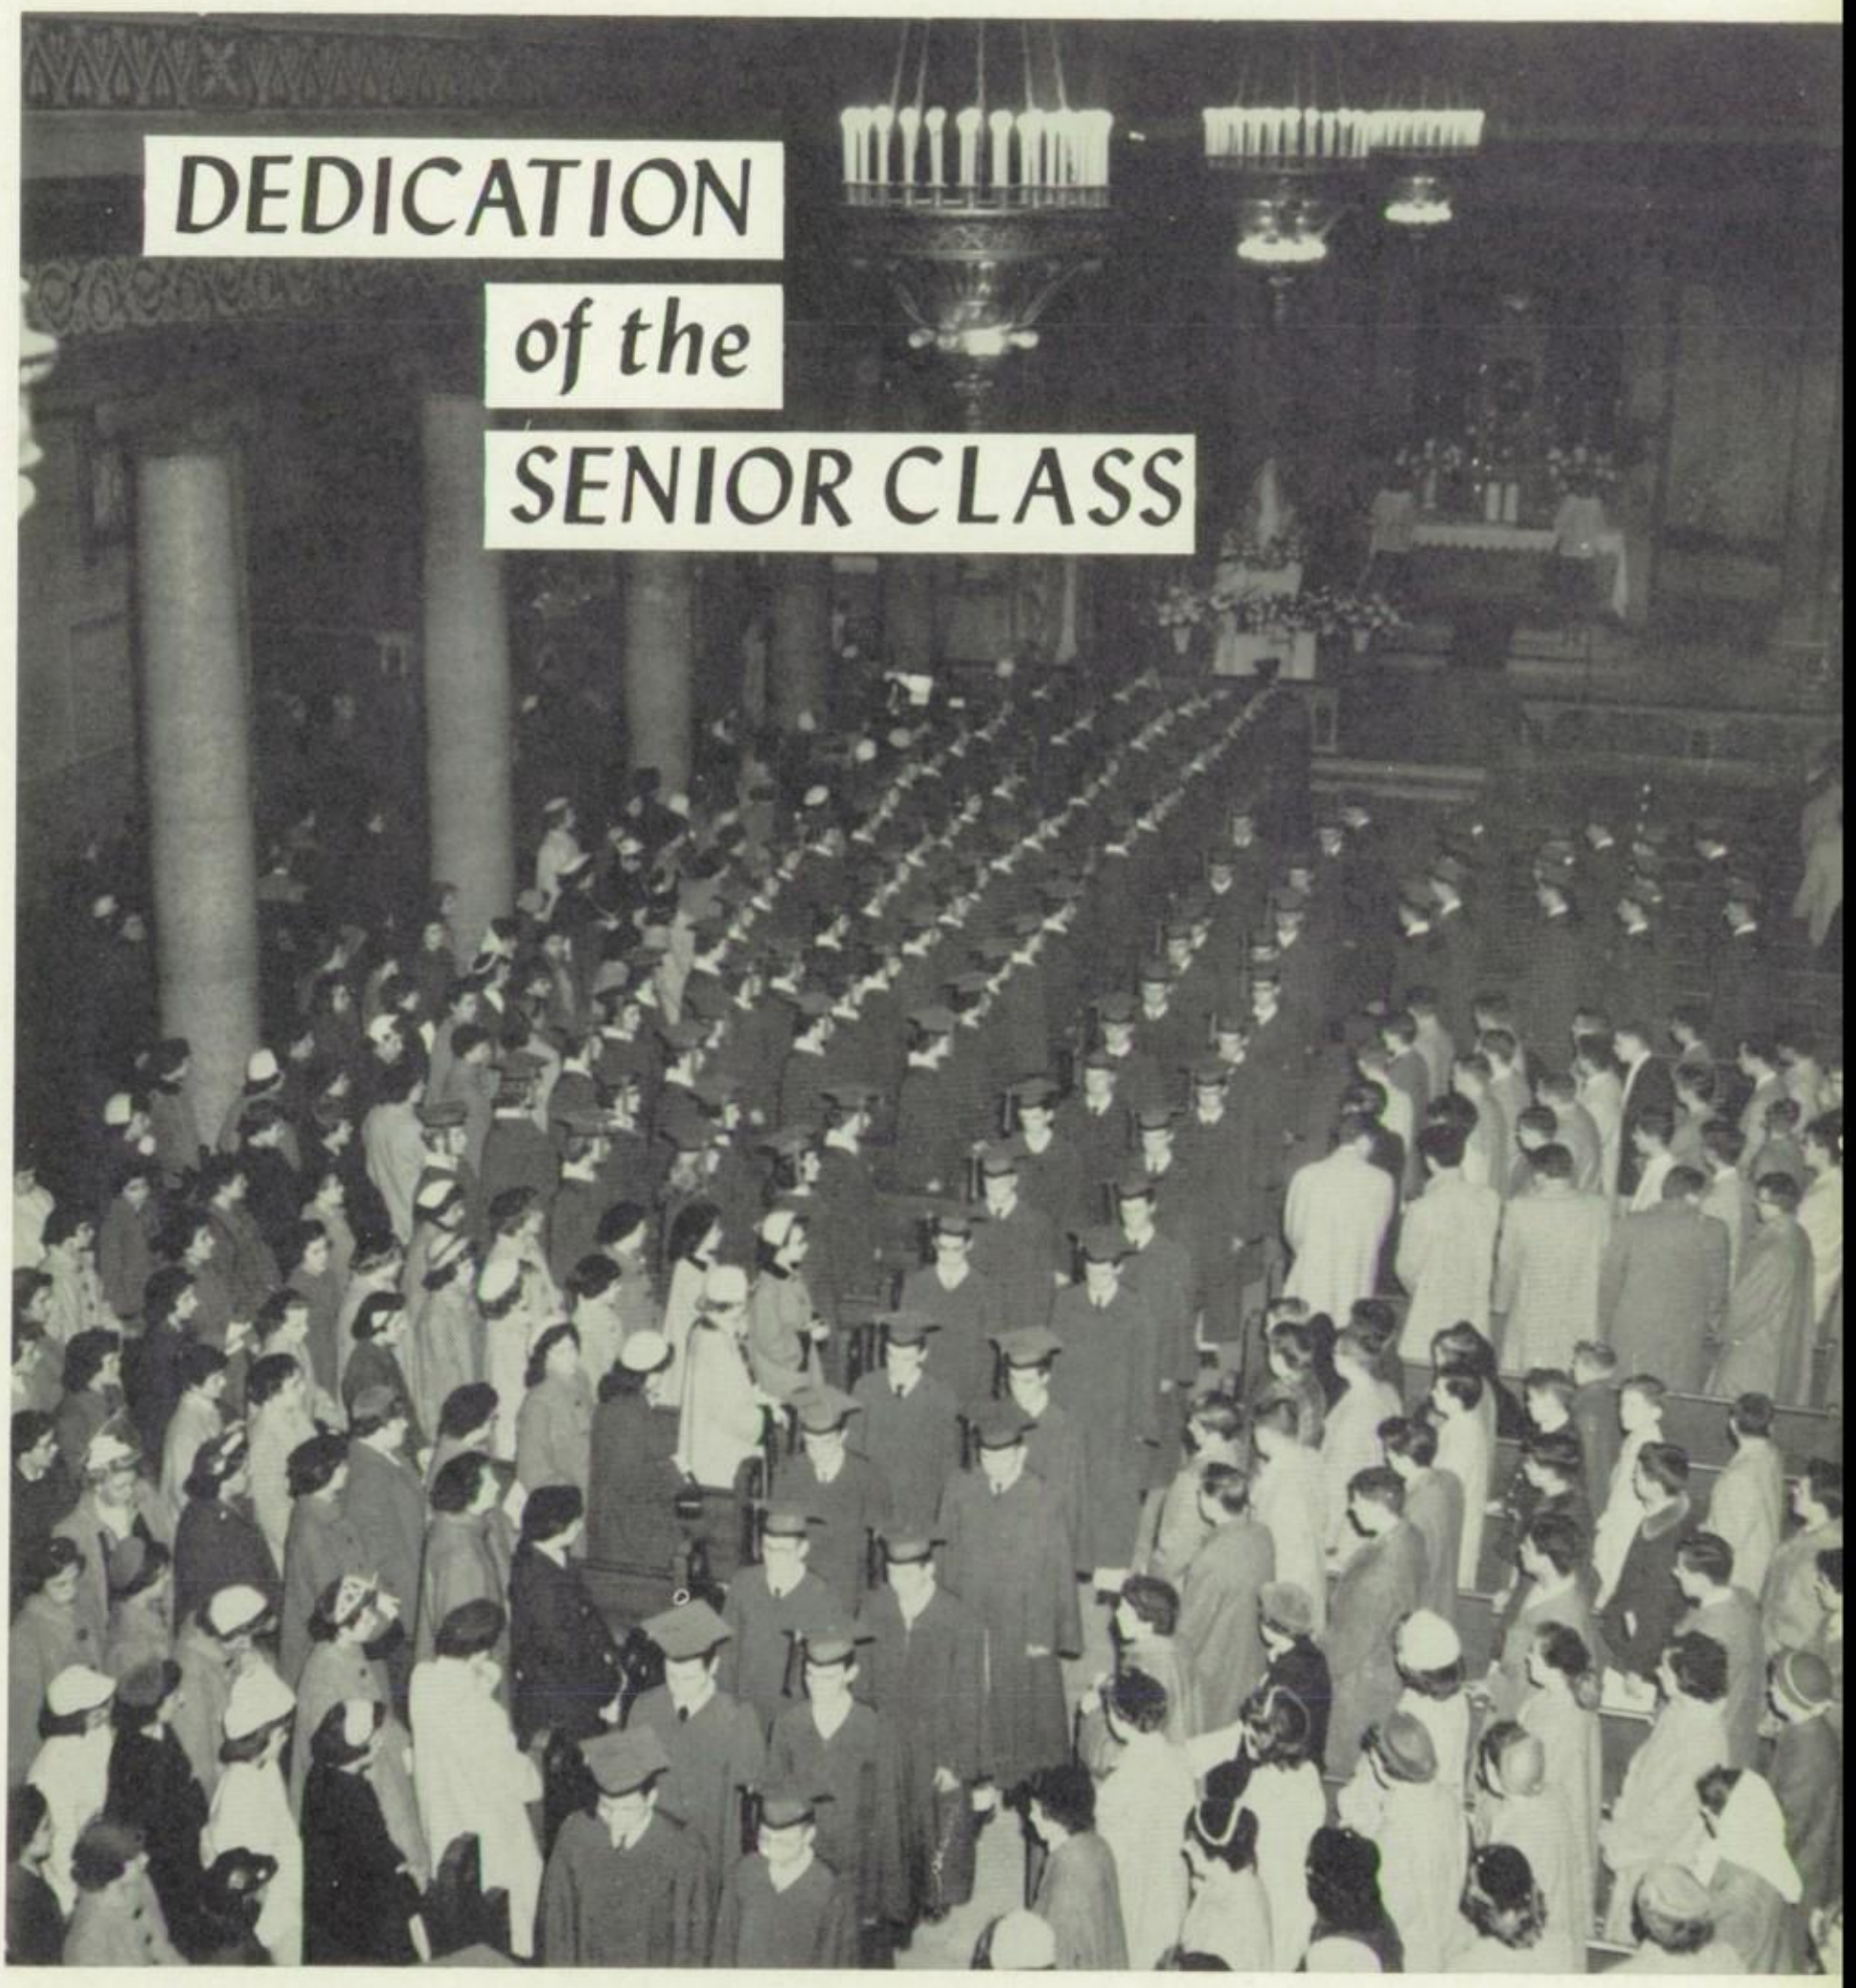
SODALITY

SODALISTS--COMRADES of MARY

Members who are permanently consecrated in the Sodality have made a special dedication of their lives to Our Lady. These "shock" troops prepare themselves for the apostolate of Catholic Action by a vigorous spiritual life. To win the world for Christ is a glorious ambition, the one implied in the Sodality motto, "To Jesus Through Mary".

Sodality is an essential organized body with special work. It requires a closely knit internal structure. The Sodalist's own soul is his first responsibility. Moreover, the Christlike impression that he makes on other souls will depend on how much his own soul resembles Christ.

The Sodalist's life of dedication to Mary reaches out to all his spheres of influence; home, class work, recreation, and business. It is his ambition to bring Christ and Mary to all his associates.



THE SENIORS solemnly dedicated themselves to Our Lady by professing their love, which was symbolized with a white carnation humbly laid at Mary's feet. This was a proof that she is their Mother, Queen and Advocate.

May Altar

A custom of dedicating the month of May to Our Lady, is carried on by setting up shrines, prayer, processions and meeting together daily in church to offer the holy sacrafice of the Mass in her honor. Here at St. Mary we carry out these devotions throughout the entire year because of our dedication, as a school, to Mary.

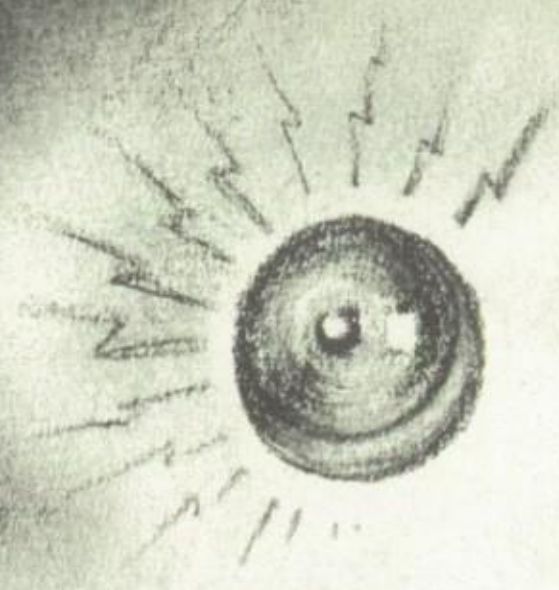
Connie Piperni, Mary Ann Coffman, Susan Beeman and Janice Strottner continue a homeroom tradition of building a May altar.

Vigil of the Immaculate Conception

The eve preceeding the feast of the Immaculate Conception was a time of devotional watch, passed in prayer and praise of God by all students in preparation for the dedication, December 8.

Our Lady showered her grace upon the senior boys who knelt at her feet in the early hours of the morning.

CLASSROOM ACTIVITIES



About an hour after the large bell in the Church tower has announced the hour of the Holy Sacrifice, another bell ushers in the routine of the class-room duties.

A carefully prepared schedule, regulated by the class exchange bell, helps in developing the skills and knowledge necessary for one's future life. Whether it is to Religion or Latin, typing or shorthand, home economics or biology, music or art, history or civics, it is the ever-faithful bell that directs us through the day. Do we sometimes pause in our care-free banter to think about making the most of our opportunities--not tomorrow, but today? The echo of those bells will follow us through life, ever recalling our student years which prepared us for success in this world and in the next.

All set to step out in her lime green dress is Joni Paulus and Ann Johnson, a junior chooses a sophisticated, black, two-piece date dress.

STYLE SHOW

A SPRING STYLE SHOW, something new at St. Mary's was presented by the combined Health and Home Economics Classes on May 5, in the Marian Auditorium. The sisters, incoming freshmen, mothers of the students, and the students themselves, were entertained by, what we consider, very desirable models.

Girls Home Ec. and Health Classes

OTHER MODELS INCLUDED Cathy Mills and Pat Martel, Sophomores, modeling their beach coats. Bernie Koerber, Junior, in a pajama attire. Frannie Demita, Sophomore, night wear categorie. Joan and Nancy Breza with their quick change act and two freshies modeling their home made dusters.

HOME ECONOMICS

"WHICH INGREDIENT GOES IN NEXT?" ask Harietta Hone, Cathy Mills, Patty Martell and Linda Podebnick.

CHECKING THE LATEST in fashion styles are freshmen students; Eileen Hagerty, Mary Foreman, Janette Frank, Mary Gault and Joanne Hamric.

"HAVE YOU SEEN my new blouse yet?" inquired Jo Anne Lusnak.

Pertaining to future usefulness, this course enables us to put into practice the skills needed in every girl's life.

In economic value, it saves money, which could be used for necessary and worthwhile purposes.

Showing a finished product, which looks like a professional job, you can boast of the work, time, and patience put into the garment. With this knowledge the future homemakers of America will face the world.

SEWING A MEAN SEAM are these ambitious students, Phyliss Paulus, Kathleen, De Luca, Maxine McCandles, Nancy Mathews, and Patty Sabo.

BUSY AT THEIR TYPEWRITERS are Rita Kuhn, Adeline Serri, Pat Kelly, Carol Seminerio, Agnes Falter, Sharon LaPoint, Delores Champlain, Pat Kaster, and Rita Dukes.

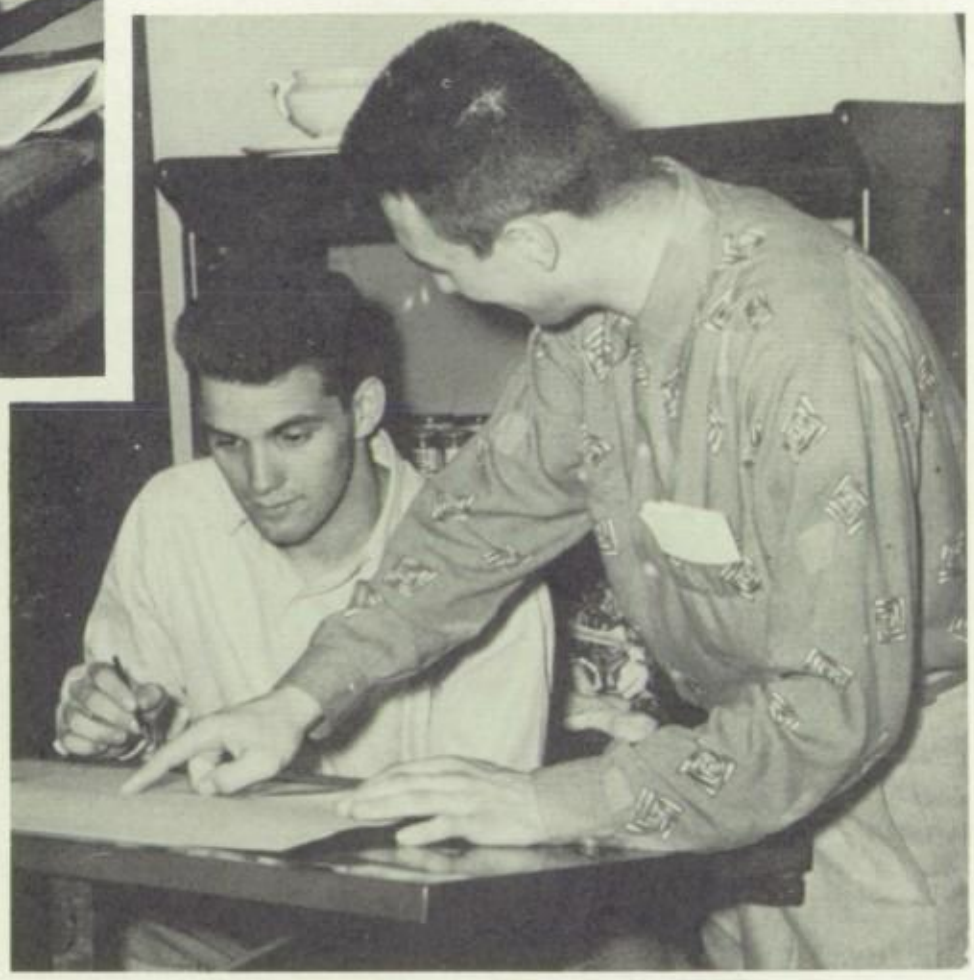
Office Practice

THE INVALUABLE SKILLS of the comptometer are put to use by these senior girls: Mary Feister, Valentine Kruppa and Dorothy Speaks.

DON LOMBARDI, MIKE TARAY AND SONNY STOCK seem to find something amusing about their work, whileGeorge Esposito and Tom Ruhlin take mechanical drawing seriously.

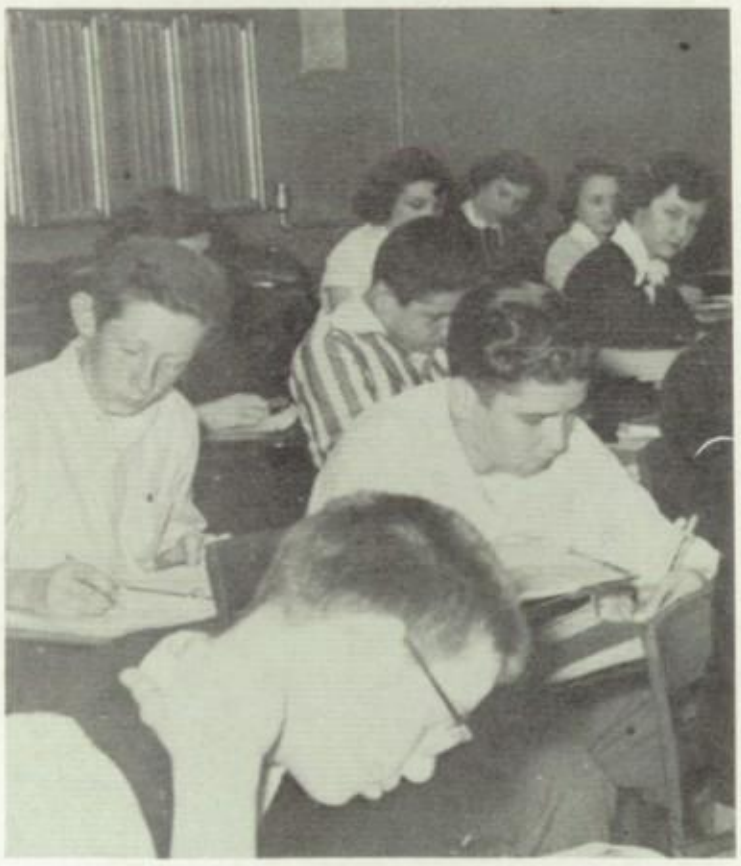
Mechanical Drawing

EXPLAINING THE DAY'S ASSIGNMENT to Tim O'Bryan is Chuck Lewis, who points out the importance of the drawing.



PONDERING OVER their days work are Bub Kapper and Jack Popp.

RELIGION



ENTHUSED IN THEIR WORKS' assignment are a few more ambitious students.

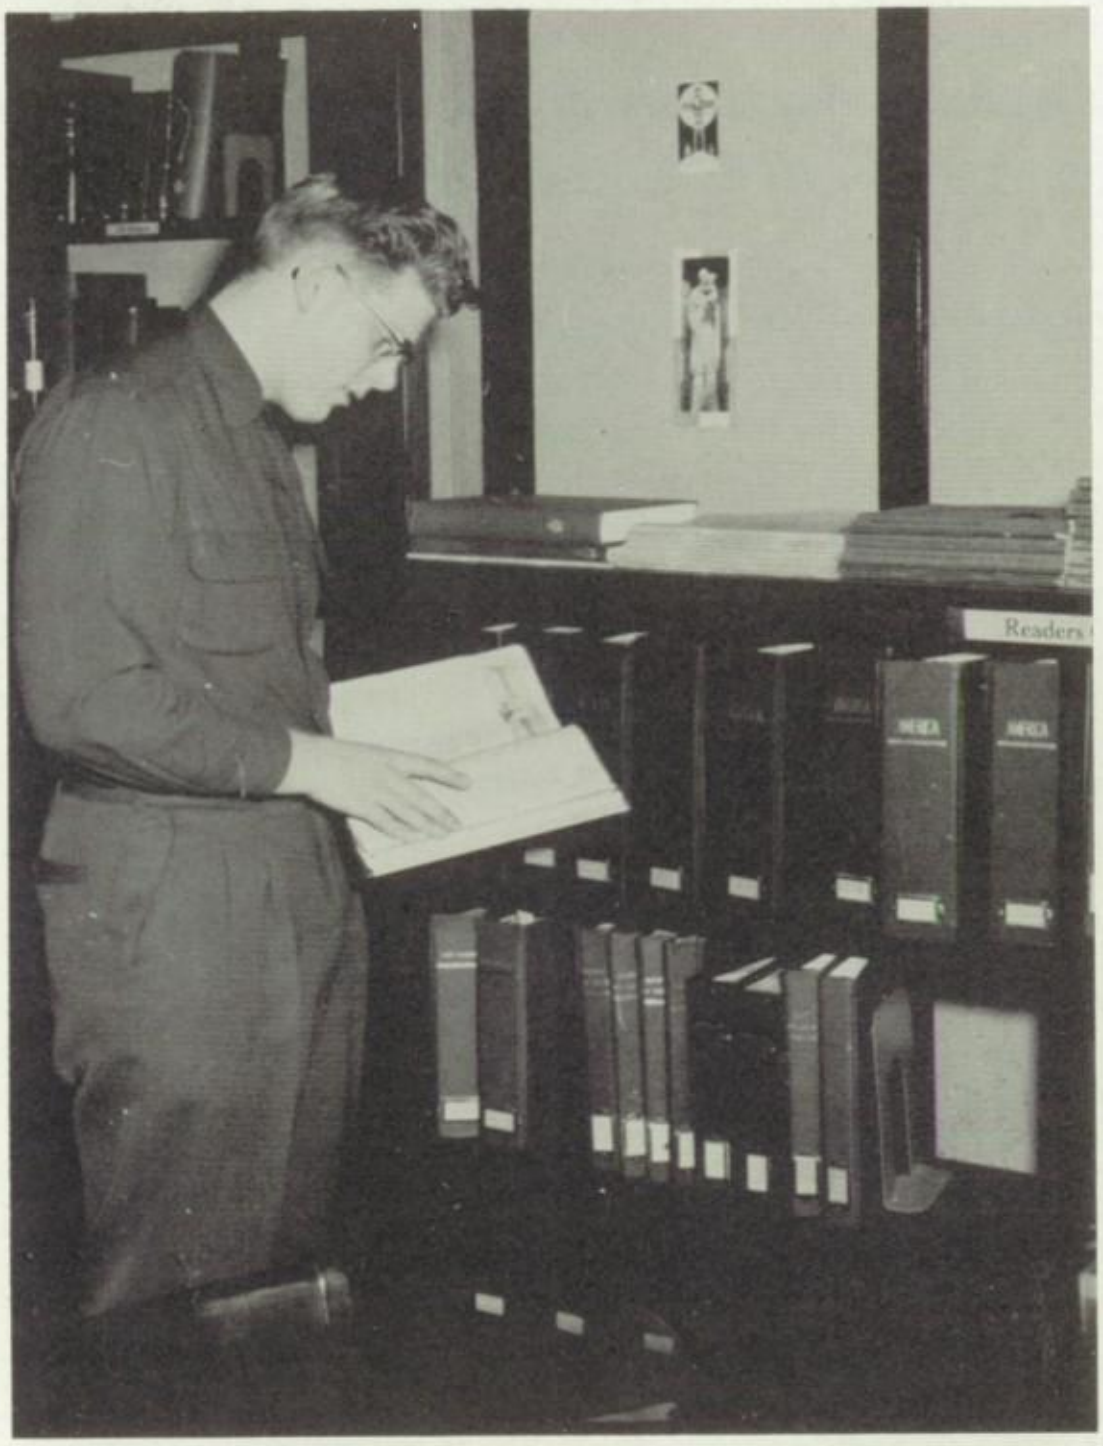
EXPLAINING THE M A S S

Sophomore Religion students recieve instruction on the liturgy from Father James Schleicher during a field trip across the schoolyard to the Church.

"From the rising of the sun to the going down thereof there shall be offered to My Name a clean Oblation."

Father expounds on some point for the of these interested students.

Explaining the use of the sacred vessel Father Scheicher draws some quizzical looks from the crowd.



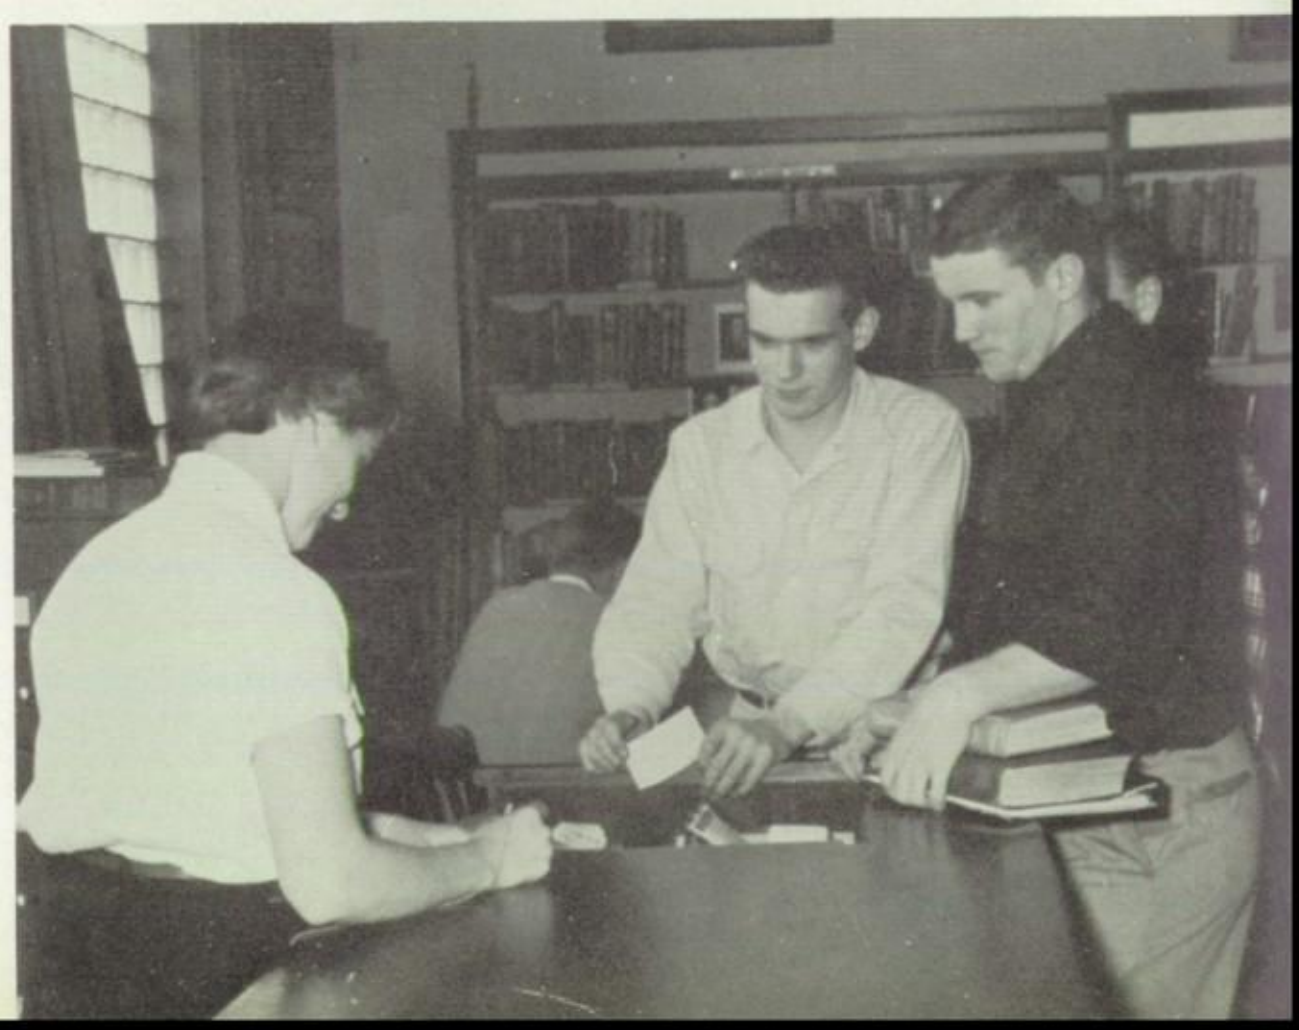
REFERENCE WORK

IN ANOTHER PART of the Reference Section, bound magazines, old and new, are useful in research. By using the Catholic Periodical Index and Reader's Guides, any item of importance can be quickly located.

DON GILCHER glances over the many volumes for students many uses.

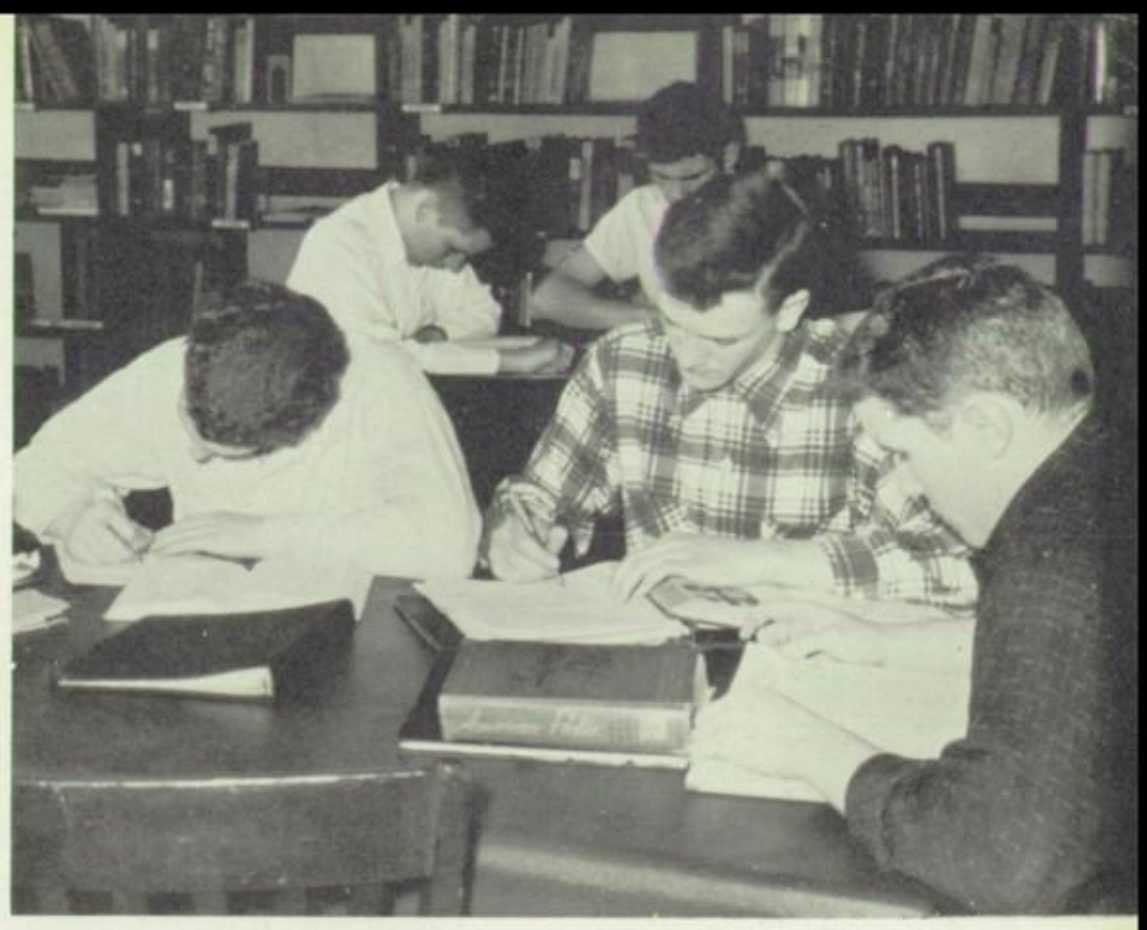
LIBRARY PERMITS

AT THE DESK Mike Hope and Don Fightmaster are having library permits signed before returning to study hall after a period of hard work in the library.



LIBRARY

READING FOR PLEASURE or for class preparation occupies part of each student's day at St. Mary High School. Aroused in their studies are Mike Stock and Mike Hope.



FILING

BOOKS THAT CIRCULATE are borrowed and returned at the charging desk where a student librarian presides part of each day. Here Pat Siwik aids Hank Gadel and Karen Becker.

INDEX

THE CARD CATALOGUE, containing author, title, and subject cards arranged in dictionary order gives class, content, and other information on all books. Dick Kindig, looking for his card has assistance from Dick Somody.'

ART

Clever fingers of; Rosemany Curalt, Bill Dodson, Carol Miser and Mary Forman learned the art of black printing.

Art Class enjoyed imaginative composition on theme of "Circus Clown".

Advanced students, Blanche Gault, Janice Richards Jim Hollenack and Leo Dodson worked at silkscreening posters on the theme "Let's Put Christ Back into Christmas."

True education provides opportunities for creative expression which includes music, dancing, drama, writing, drawing, painting, construction and crafts. To insure the development of a well-balanced personality, the student should participate in one or more of the above activities according to his particular interests.

The art program provides opportunities for: character training and social development; a cultural background for a happier, fuller, richer, life; useful recreation; an outlet for the communication of ideas and emotions; a chance to satisfy the urge to create often blocked in this industrial age, and a vocational background of skills--useful in the home or in the art field.

Judy Champlin and Mary J. Novitsky made murals to decorate St. Peter Claver Church windows. Texts were lettered by Daniel Turner and Paul Jursik.

These young draftsmen working at orthographic projections are James Oser and Stephen Zamesko.

CHORAL GROUP

BARBARA DUFALA AND KATHY MILLS are paying strict attention to their music. Something different!!!

SMILING ROSE CAETTA and puzzled Judy Champlin take a minute out to "smile for the birdie."

FRESHMEN

"DO YOU WANT TO JOIN us in a song or two?", inquires Andrea Ayres.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Bells--underclassmen. These two are closely entwined, as bells play an important part in the daily lives of the green freshmen, the indifferent sophomore, and the elegant junior.

For the freshman, it is the awakening to the vast amount of knowledge around them. Before them looms the great day of initiation. After that uncertainty comes the joy of being accepted into the everyday activity of high school life.

For the sophomore, it is a year of indifference, for they are the adolescent with a touch of maturity. Awareness comes with the discovery that this has been the year to mold their lives.

Junior Year is one of importance. It is a time of dreams and laying plans for the future.

Bells--they're all around us, bringing the duty of the present moment They can be called in some ways the rule of life, that every high school student must follow.

In our life at school and in the school of life, in all trials and difficulties, The Bells of St. Mary's will be our guide and reminder of the Way, the Truth, and the Life we must follow.

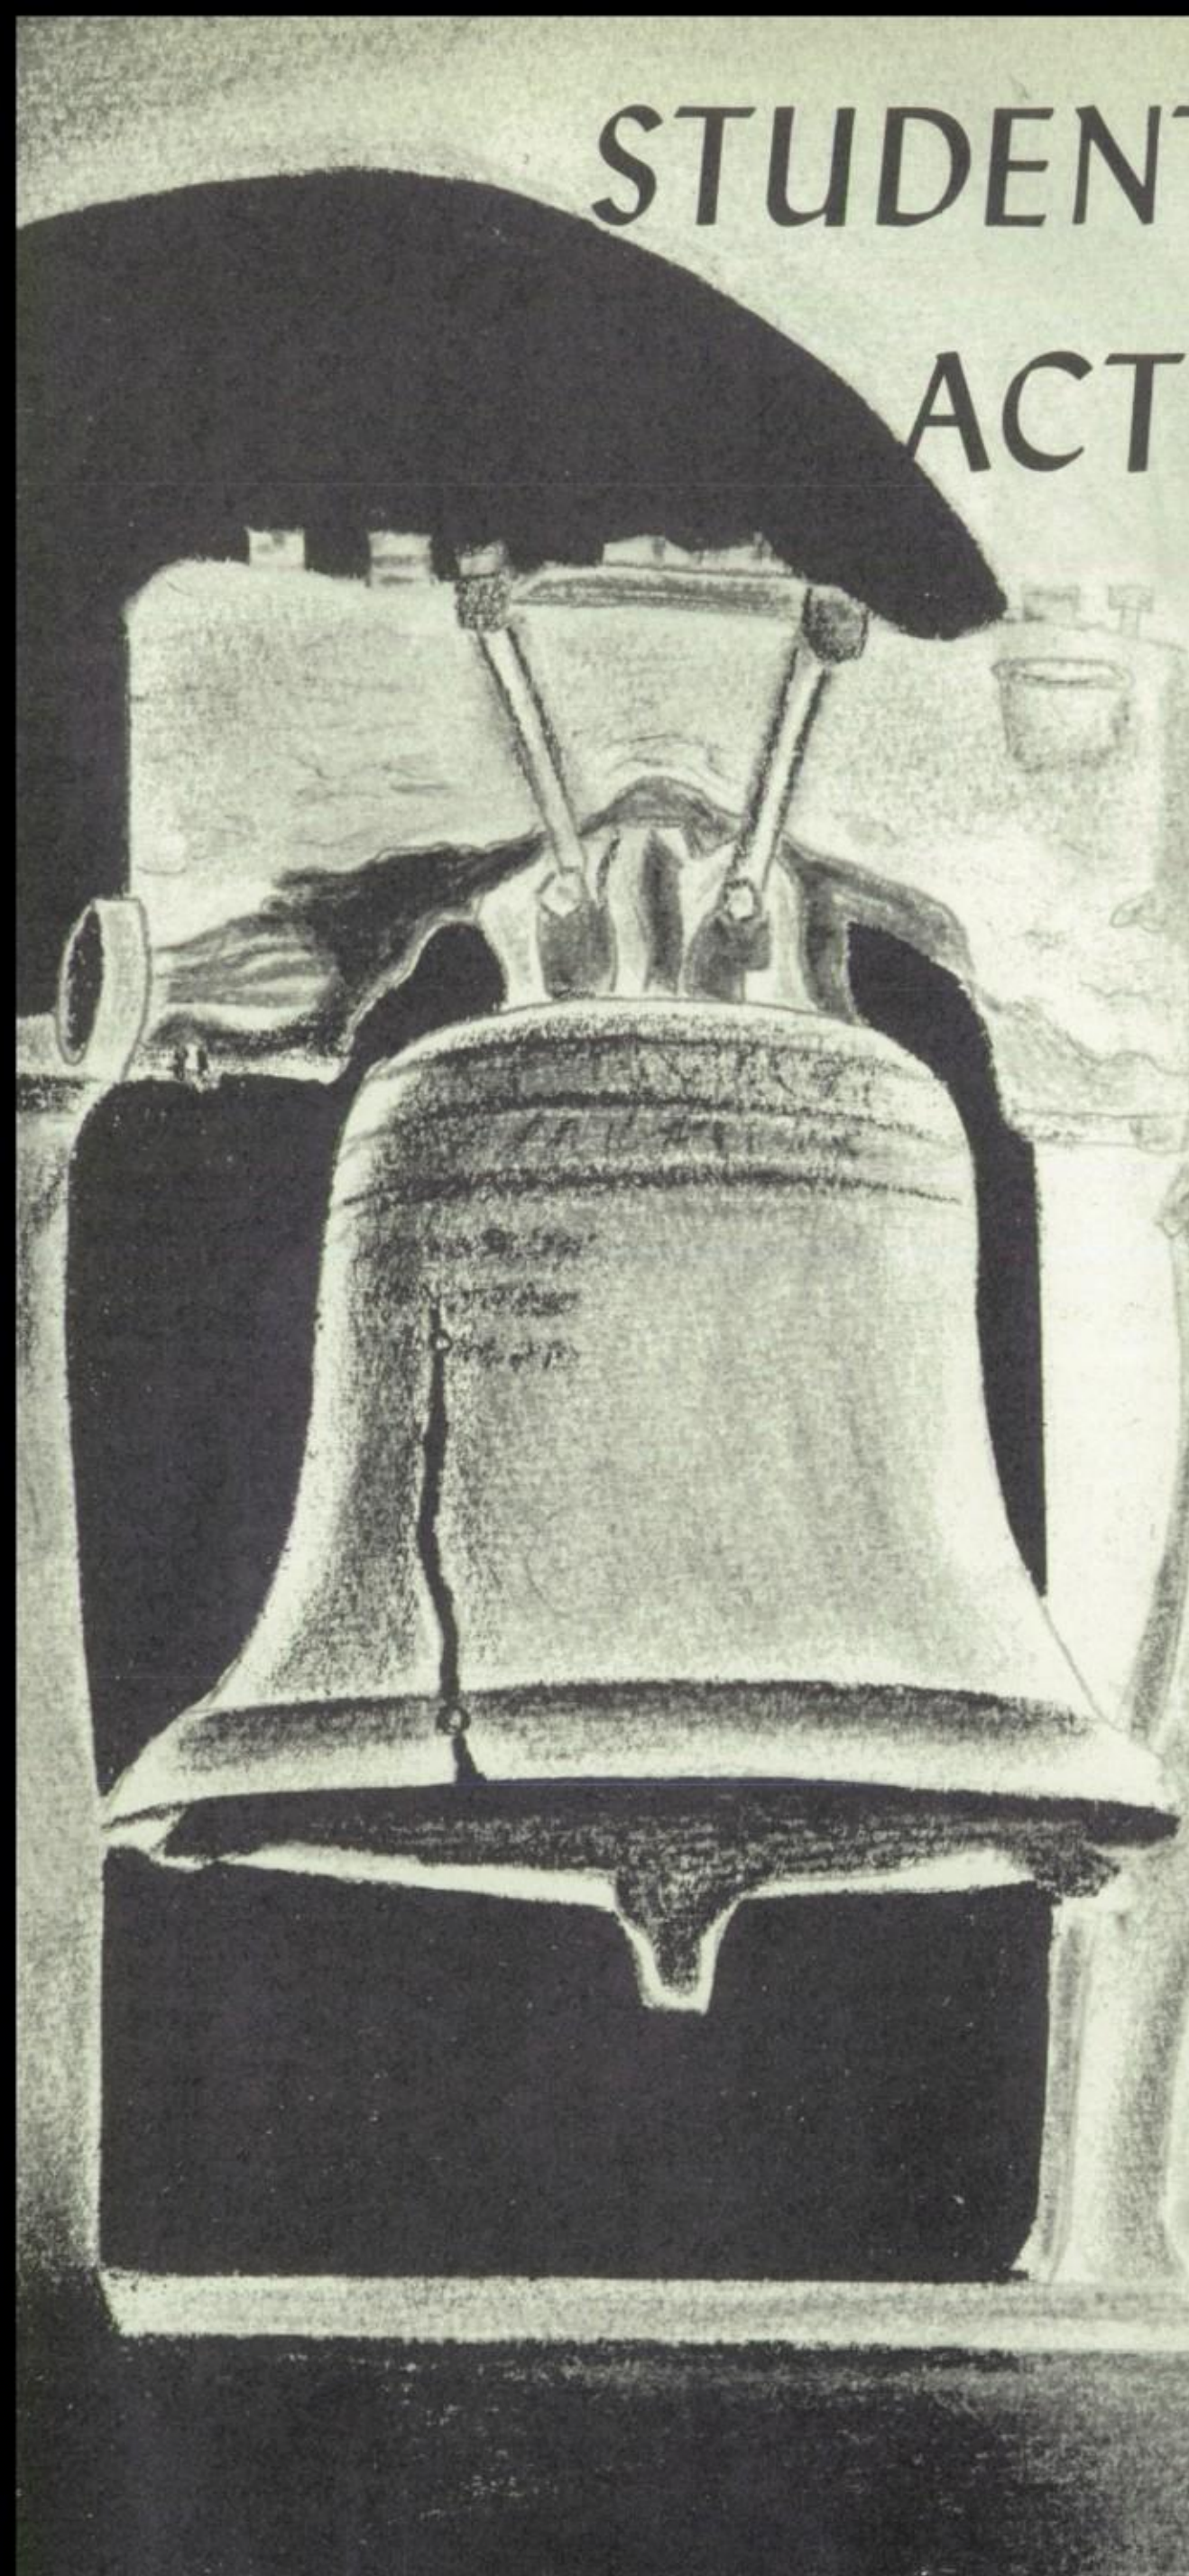
OUT TO LUNCH

STUDENT ACTIVITIES



The Liberty Bell stands as a symbol of the democratic leadership which worked out our principles of democracy.

Opportunities for developing this leadership are found in a well integrated school system. At Saint Mary School in Student Council meetings, representatives of the student body, voice their opinions and along with their criticisms give their ideas for the betterment of the school. Members of the Booster Club try to arouse the spirit of Saint Mary's to win support for the school's athletic program, and its social and religious functions. The Crusader and Blue Book offer students the opportunity, to express themselves through the printed page.

Those who so generously gave their time and energy to these group activities, have done much toward making themselves, and other students of today, good citizens of tomorrow.

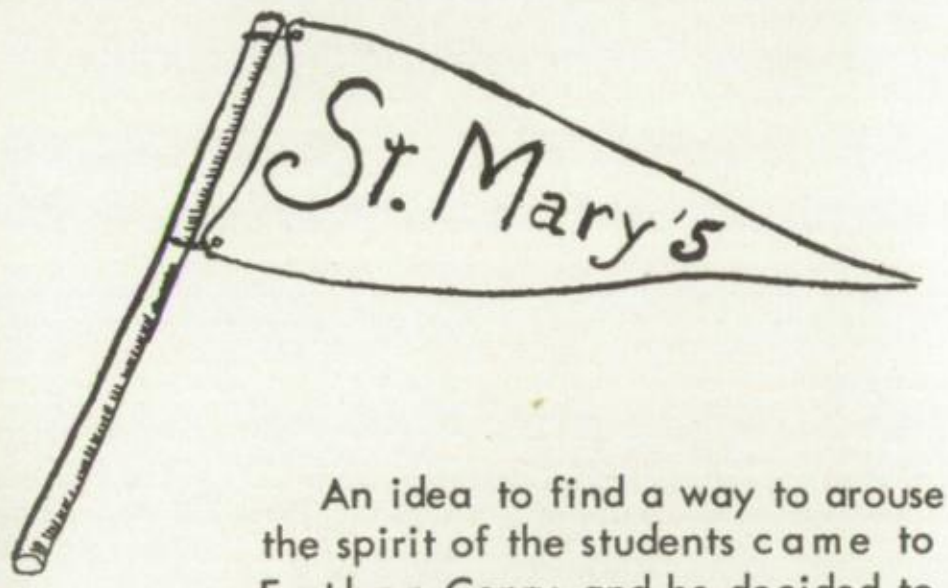
Snow, sleet, nor rain could keep the eager waiting crowd away from the annual bonfire and burning of the Irish. Spirits were high not only among the students and coaches but the weather complied with the long awaited event. Cool and crisp only good, clean, wholesome fun was displayed.

Joan McElheny, Norm Picard, George Esposito, and Pat Mark are only a few enthusiastic rooters that showed their spirits at the bonfire before the big game against St. Vincents'.



An idea to find a way to arouse the spirit of the students came to Father Conry and he decided to start a Junior Booster Club. Two representatives, a boy and a girl, were chosen from each homeroom. The Club meetings are held every Wednesday night after school in Room 05. Ray Steinkerchner was elected president, Janice Strottner, vice-president, and Virginia Kerr, secretary. The Club was run of course, under the supervision of Father Conry. The main functions of this club are to arouse school spirit, to make the students love their school and to support it in all its activities.

THE CRUSADER STAFF

As the new term begins, a green but enthusiastic staff of reporters and typists put out their first paper. The results were good. As time progressed so did the staff and the papers began to appear more interesting and lively. A special edition in December was done in blue print to honor Our Blessed Mother. During the course of the year a raffle was also held to raise funds for the paper. Helpful hints were contributed by members of the staff who attended the Kent State and John Adams Journalism Conventions. Besides four editions published bi-monthly, a Senior edition comes out at the end of the year.

THE BLUEBOOK STAFF

The work was not easy, nor the disappointments few. Hours were spent at hard work, planning, typing, cutting. This all went into the making of your Bluebook. But that was not all. A spirit also went into your book, one of generosity and unselfishness. The staff members gladly gave their time and energy to make it a book to be proud of. As the deadline drew near, and the Bluebook was almost finished, meetings were filled with gay chatter--also relief. The book is here, the work is over. May you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed producing--The Bluebook of '55.

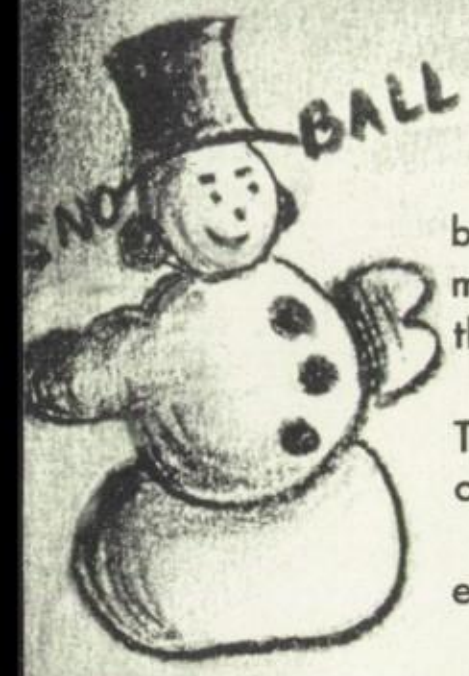
SOCIAL ACTIVITIES



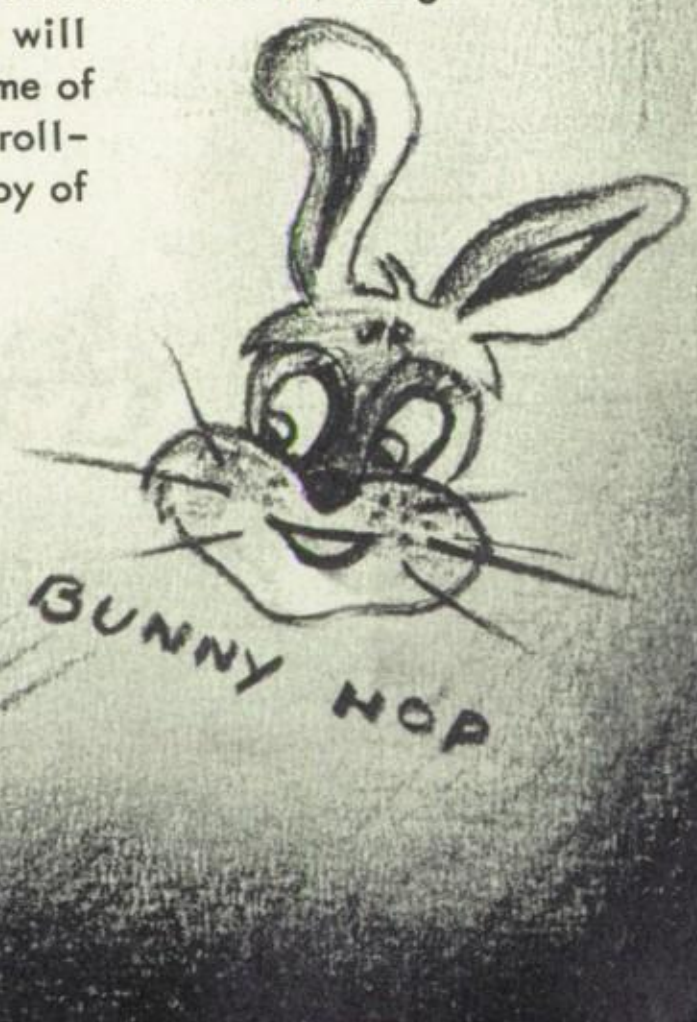
In years to come the sound of the bells will bring with it many happy memories of hours spent with friends in the fresh gaiety of youth.

They will bring with them the sound of laughter through the years. The laughter of the very young...the carefree laughter heard in a country such as ours...

Yes, the Bells of St. Mary's will bring back to us the time when each day was a new experience, a new adventure. The days when sorrows hurt so terribly and joys were so complete.

Perhaps someday the sound of the bells will bring with it some dusty memory out of the half-forgotten...Dancing couples on a smooth gym floor...the rustling of the girl's new gown...and how strangely dignified the boys seemed in their white jackets.

Yes, many years from now the laughter of the bells will bring with it some of that old, uncontrollable joy--the joy of the very young.



Her Majesty Midge Mannion reigns with her attendants Miriam Wein, Barbara Bonacci, Frances De Mita, Rose Caetta. To grace her court are the distinguished visitors Mayor and Mrs. Berg and Candidate for Congress, John L. Smith.

HOMECOMING COURT REIGNS AT GAME....

This year's Homecoming game saw the Crusaders defeated 18-16 by Cleveland St. Joseph.

But neither the defeat nor the cloudy, drizzly weather could dampen the spirits of the girls in the court.

This year something new was added to the Homecoming ceremonies; that is, a parade, consisting of the band, the court and about sixty gaily decorated cars full of cheering Crusaders. The parade started at St. Mary's then proceeded down Long Street to our Stadium. Midge Mannion, Queen, Miriam Wein, Senior Attendant, and Barbara Bonacci, Junior Attendant, rode in a blue convertible, while Fran De Mita, Sophomore Attendant, and Rose Caetta, Freshman Attendant, rode in a yellow convertible.

At the half the girls were presented with bouquets by last year's Queen, Claire Conrad and were congratulated by Mayor and Mrs. Berg, and Candidate for Congress, John L. Smith.

Once more in the evening, the court was presented to all attending the dance.

The girls, dressed in formals, went up to the stage individually while those present applauded for their favorites.

Bill Craig, Captain of the Football Team, then crowned Queen Midge as she sat in her place of honor in the center of the stage.

The first dance after the crowning ceremonies was reserved for the court and their escorts as Vern Robbins' Orchestra provided some danceable music.

BAND SPONSORS ANNUAL BALL

Don Hoffman

One of the many highlights of the annual Military Ball, sponsored by the Band Parents, was the Grand March. The beautiful colors of the formals and the band uniforms were shown off to their fullest as the couples paraded into varied and fancy formations.

The formal dance, open to all schools in the city, drew visitors from Garfield, St. Vincent, and Hoban High. Decorating the gym were banners representing every school in the district midst glittering band instruments. Also placed in the Marian Auditorium were tables and chairs providing the couples with a chance to relax and talk with their friends.

The refreshments enjoyed by the couples were generously provided by the Band Parents, who also acted as chaperones.

The evening was considered a large success and one of the comments heard most was, "Everyone was so friendly and seemed to be having such a good time. hope we have one again next year."

JUNIOR
SNO-BALL

Taking a breather from the dance are Bill Butke, Janice Strottner Charlene Strottner, and Larry Saal.

The picturesque scenery seems to appeal to Bobbie Klotz, Fran Morrison, Pat Barnhardt, and Fred Stevens.

Fran De Mita and Tom Maximovich seem to be enjoying the fine music of Johnny Lewis.

On January 19, 1955 the Marian auditorium was transformed into a winter wonderland for the ninth annual Junior Sno-Ball.

Our Juniors put all their ingenuity together for marvelous results. To the traditional trees and snow a little pond was added. This, everyone agreed, was the center of attraction because it exhibited a puzzled-looking fawn which seemed taken by surprise by all these admirers.

OUT of a WINTER Wonderland came the smooth music of Johnny Lewis and his orchestra on the night of the Junior Sno-Ball.

Some of the couples dancing to the smooth music were Charlene Brobst and Bill Craig, Janet Kibler and John Neff, Miriam Wein and Carl Hilt, Blanch Gault and Larry Logsdon, Shirley Stasick and Bill Buck, Helen Reuschman and Dave Baltrinic, Ann Zelsky and Bob Baltrinic, JoAnne Lusnak and Norman Picard, Joni Paulus and John Costello, Tom Mills and Mareanne Schumacher.

ADMIRING the MANY PRIZES donated to the Sno-Ball by friends of the Junior Class were Dolores Mancuso, John Smith, and Agnes Falter.

SODALITY ST. VALENTINE DANCE

queen crowns Queen

Prefect crowns queen

St. Mary's Auditorium looked like cupid had struck in full force. Arrows, hearts and frilly valentines provided the background as couples danced to popular records.

When not dancing, they dashed around collecting autographs from everyone that could write. This has become a custom at the Valentine Dance. Hearts were worn by everyone to identify themselves. Because of the autograph hunting and name tags, the Sodality Dance is one noted for the friendly atmosphere.

Highlighting the evening Queen Mary Carr crowned the Blessed Virgin. She and Joe Rach were chosen as King and Queen of Hearts by the student body. Votes were cast by contributing a penny. The money collected from the voting is used to further apostolic work.

Jeanne Kreitz and Bill Rollison seem to have something important to say to each other.

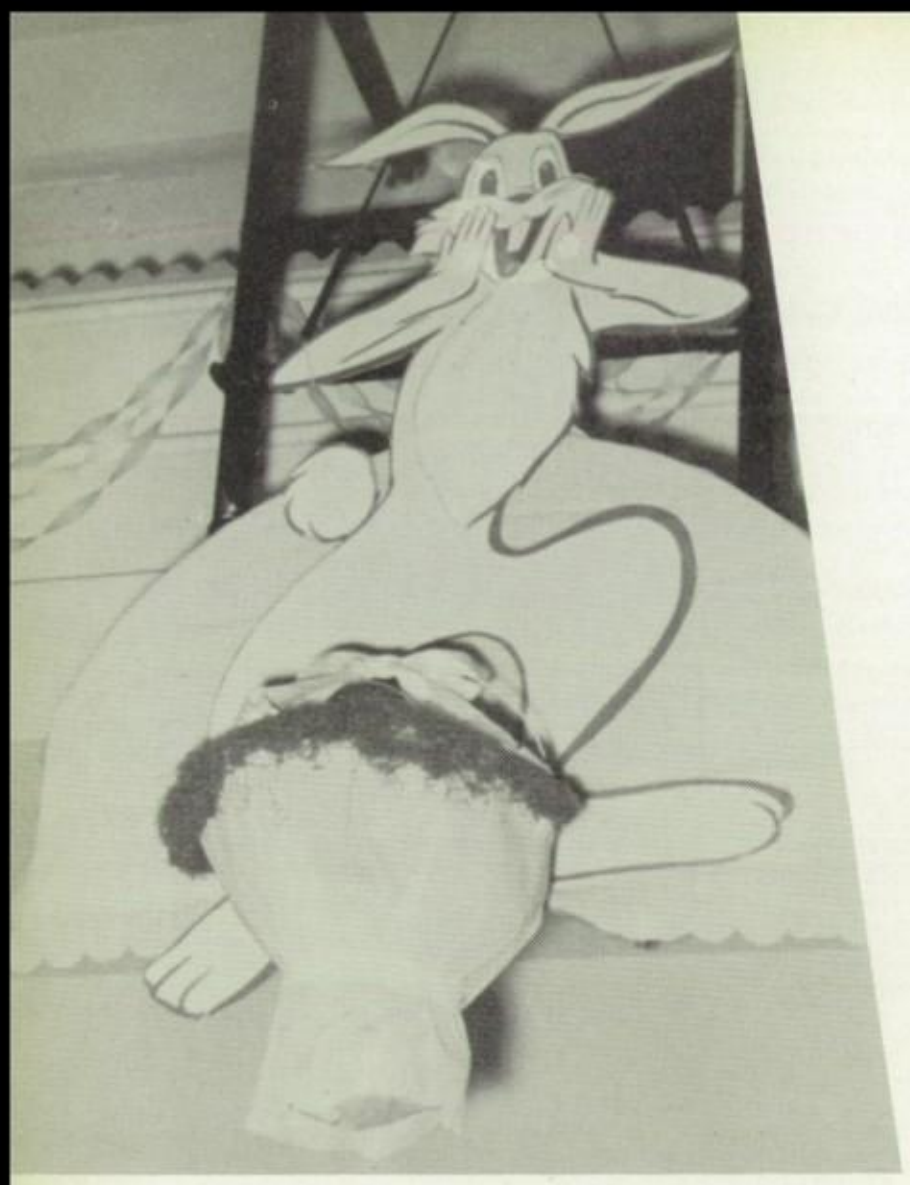
Enjoying the St. Patrick's Day Variety Show are: Jerry Mushinski, Joan Breza, Ed Brennan, Margaret Becker, George Pittinger, and Cathy Costanzo.

Confused? Cathy Costanzo seems to get around. Here we see her play a classical piece for an appreciative audience.



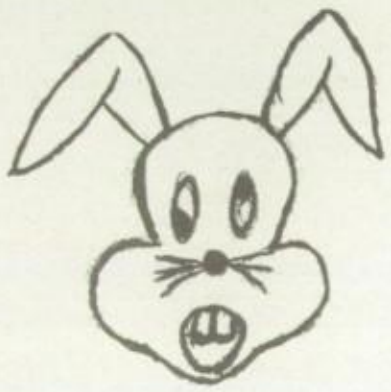
"Welcome to the Bunny Ball" Bugs Bunny seems to be saying as he watches the dancing couples.

Sophomores Treat School

As they danced to the music of the George Conway Band at the annual Bunny Ball held on April 11, 1955, a wonderful evening was enjoyed by many of St. Mary's students. Sponsored by the Sophomore Class, the decorations consisted of a variety of colorful eggs and bunnies. Programs given to all who attended consisted of a schedule of the evening's activities, while souvenirs of Easterbunnies were made and sold by the Sophomore girls.

Taking a breather and looking around are Margie Craig and Eddie Tyon.

Judging from JoAnne Conrey's expression that's quite a line Joe Kaufman is handing her.



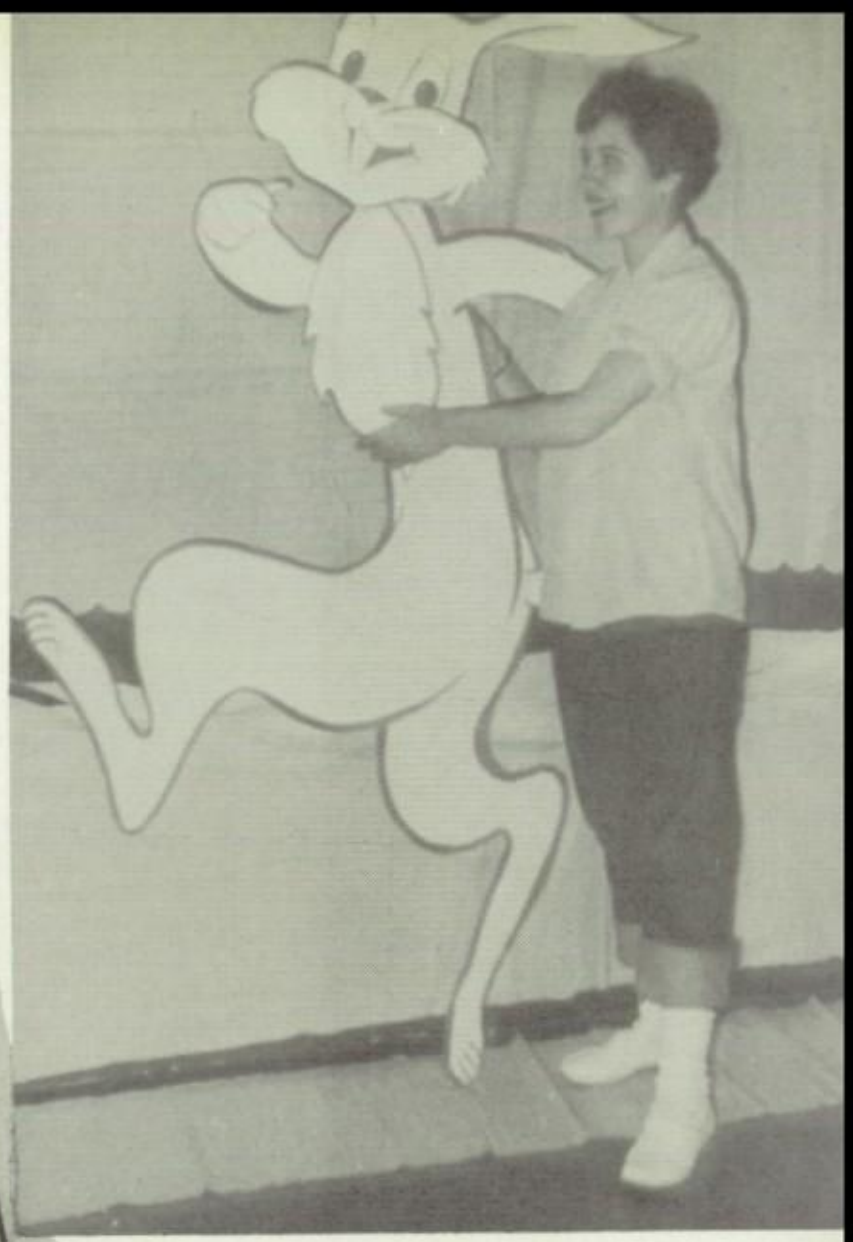
Tom Kapper, Rachel Young, Mike Braccio, and Jane DeAmbrose admire the decorations the Sophomores put up for the Bunny Ball.

Rita Richardson and John Kohler sip cokes and look for their friends at the Bunny Ball.

Mary Theresa Damicone's idea of fun amuses Catherine Nash but it doesn't affect Joan Weigand.

The Reason for the Bunny Ball's Success

Virginia Kerr seems to be enjoying the company of her fancy-stepping friend, Peter Cottentail.



Taking time out for a smile is Vera Rainer, official artist for the Bunny Ball.

Here JoAnne Simmons and Margaret Speaks put finishing touches on an Easter egg.

JUNIOR - SENIOR PROM

Admiring the little fish pond are John Rainey and Alice Dominic.

Getting their dances straightened out are Vera Rainer, Bill Rollison, Kathleen Higgins.

Miriam Wein and Lee Firth seem to have something interesting to talk about as they rest for a minute.

St. Mary's Choral realizes the beauty of harmony and the richness of belnded voices. For this reason it has worked patiently to produce a good choral and to develope an appreciation of this fine art. The architect's dream is embodied in tur after tur of hewn stone; the sculptor's vision is made solid in a thing of bronze or marble, that of a painter is worked out in pigments on canvas; but the musician has only tones with which to deal. All the hard work, generous effort, and time-tested patience of both the students and conductor are tedious-but enn students and conductor are tedious-but enjoyable, disappearing and forgotten at the final performance.

In addition to their achievements at St. Mary's, the choral has displayed its talents at various music programs throughout the diocese. At Hoban-Dominican they participated in the concert at which they gained an excellent rating. On March 25 they again took part in the Diocesan Festival at the Public Auditorium in Cleveland.

ST. MARY'S MARCHING BAND

Tramping for long hours at St. Mary Stadium is our own Blue and Gold marching Band. This musical group provides colorful and timely half-time performances at the Crusaders football games.

Under the able direction of Mr. Kenneth Judge, who formulates and directs the routines, the band presents a new and exciting routine for every home game. These routines usually tie in with the rival schools traditions or a special event. Once on the field, the band is under the whistle of drum major Joe Futo.

The band can also be found at our parades, bon fires, and pep meetings with lively music to raise the school spirit. These musicians are known as the nucleus cheering section that cheers for the team regardless of the score.

ATHLETICS

Shrill are the bells
for in athletics
tis a different sound that tells - those on the line - that now is the appointed time - to -

Tackle, pass, drop kick or fake a spinner - dribble - shoot - hit the water, swimmer.
The sound is clear, concise, shrill - the blast of whistle bends our will.

On the diamond too, the bells are still.
By signals with hand - by words he'll say - the umpire will decide each play.

Whistles - signals - calls cheers, like shrill bells will reach our ears - in the future - in the distant years.

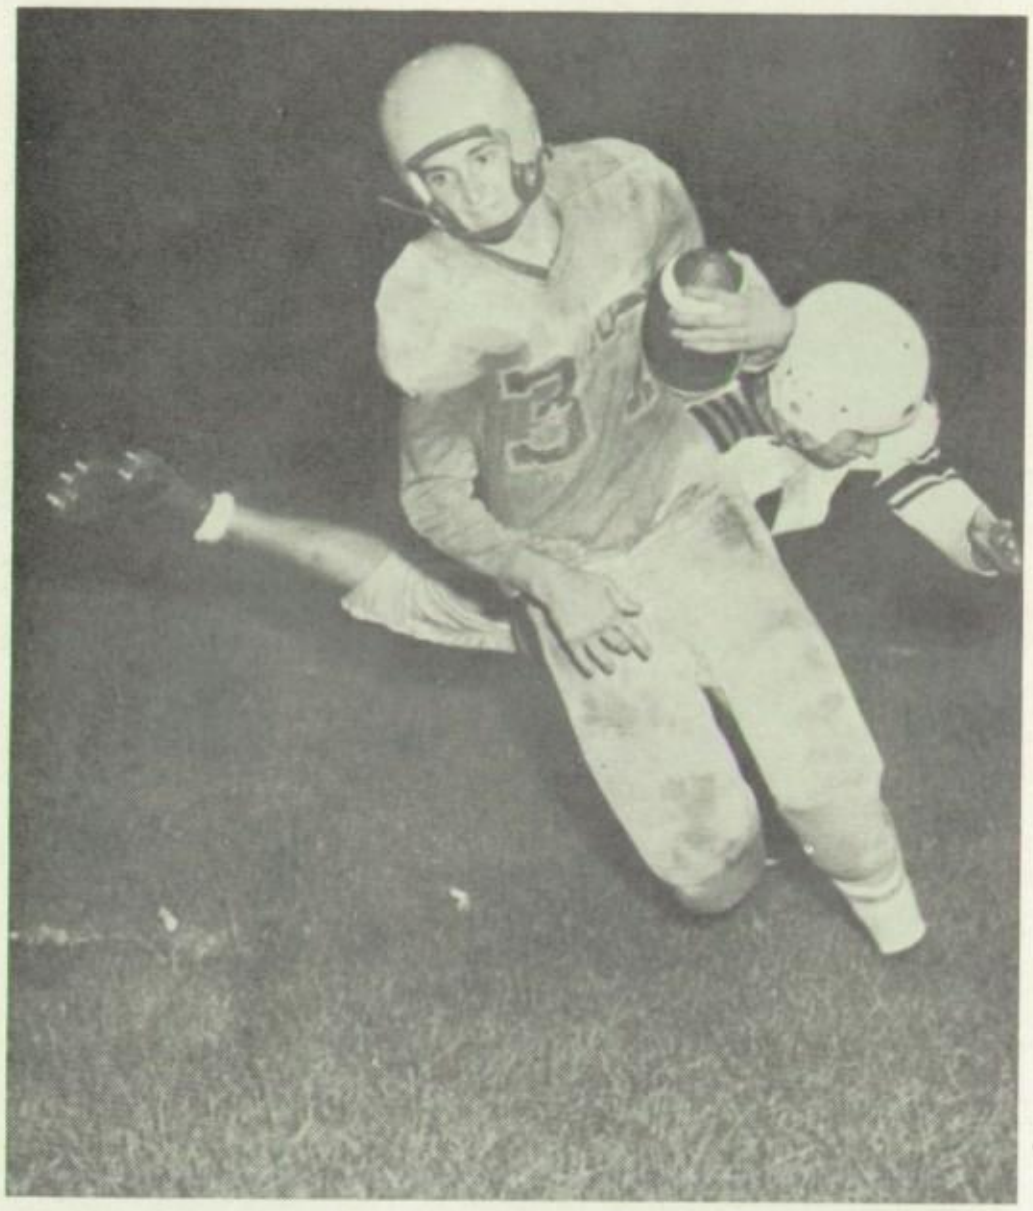
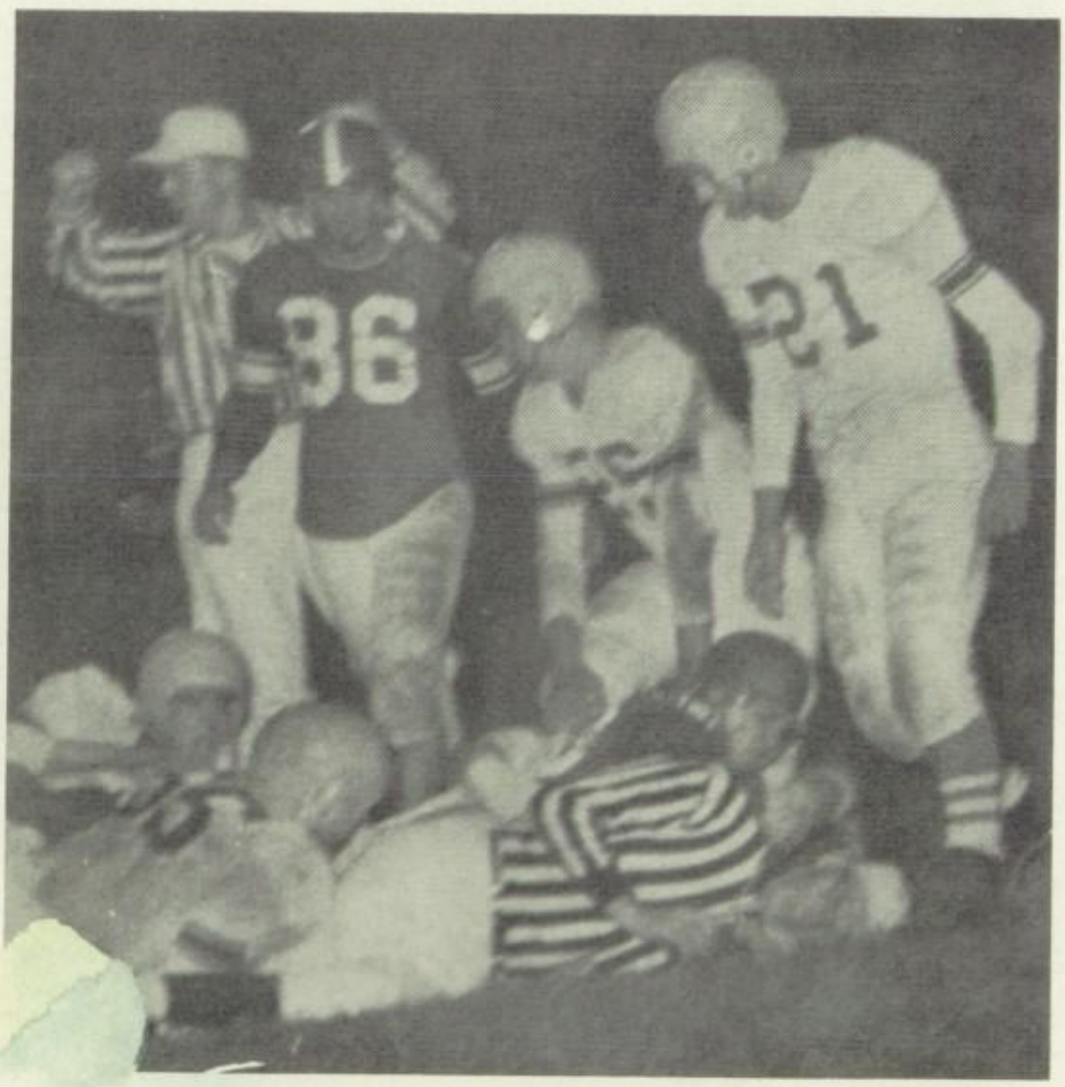
ST. MARYS tie GRIFFS

Early in the first quarter, St. Mary's taking a punt on their own 44 yard line, marched for their score. The big ground gainer of the drive was a 31 yard pass from Larry Logsdon to Leo Firth.

Late in the fourth period the Crusaders fumbled on their own 40. Buchtel capitalizing on the St. Mary's error rolled 60 yards to paydirt. St. Mary out gained Buchtel, 210 yards to 152, and picked up nine first downs to Buchtels six.



Sonny Stock returns punt as a Buchtel player makes a desperation dive.



CRUSADERS WIN

Kenmore recovered a Crusader fumble and marched 31 yards for the first score of the game. Ray Kapper passed to Chuck Lewis for a touchdown. Louie Nine hit Dave Leonard with a 20 yard pass good for a touchdown. Mike Braccio intercepted a Nine Pass and went for a touchdown. The Crusaders scored in the fourth quarter to win the ballgame.

"Wrong man," says Mike Braccio, as Bill Craig seems to have tackled the referee during the Kenmore game.

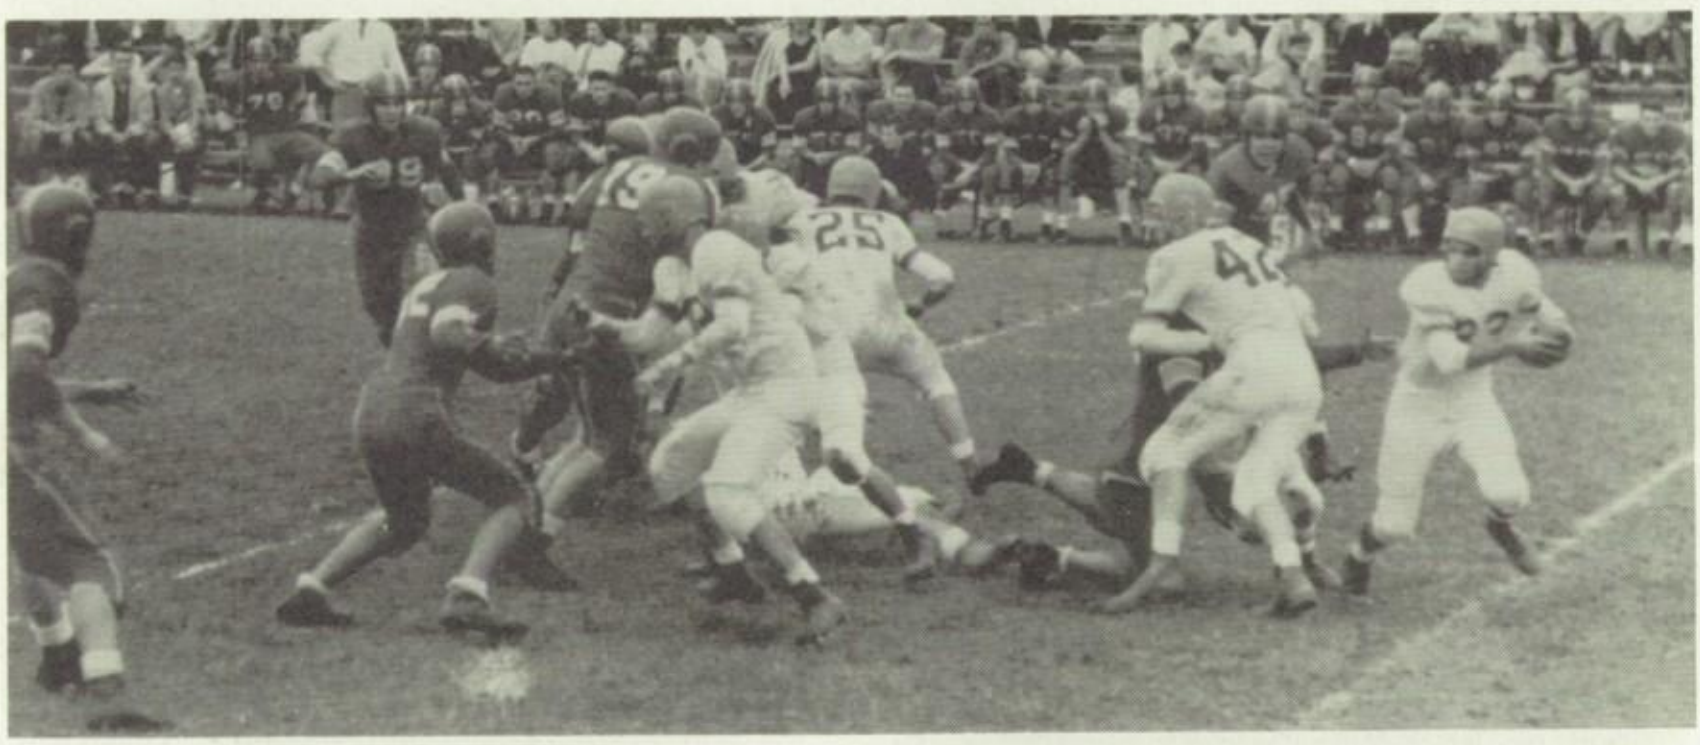
HOMECOMING

On October 3, St. Mary's took on Cleveland St. Joseph's in our annual Homecoming game. A hard fought battle was dropped, 18-16.

Ted Attalla scored for the Crusaders with a 3 yard buck over center in the 2nd quarter. Then through the combined efforts of John Rainey, who blocked a punt in the end zone for 2 points and Ted Attalla's shot through tackle, also in the 2nd quarter, the Crusaders went out in front, 16-12. Bob Mast cruised down the sidelines for 85 yards on the ensuing kickoff for St. Joe's margin of victory.

Kapper surrounded, waiting to hand off to Logsdon.

Kapper fading back with good protection from mates.



ST. ED'S

In the first quarter St. Mary's marched from their own 24 yard line to St. Edwards 16, then St. Edward cashed in on one of their two breaks of the game when Ray Kappers' pass was intercepted by Jim Jolley of St. Edwards who took off on a 90 yard jaunt into the end zone. The extra point was added by Vazman.

After coming back to threaten again, the tiretowners were again stopped on the St. Edwards' 16 yard line. St. Edwards' Jim Ansberry scored their second and last touchdown.

Kapper to Braccio aerials set up an 81 yard march for pay-dirt. Then Kapper went over from the one yard line to scor

CLARK !

The Central Wildcats came from behind in the third quarter to defeat St. Mary 25-7.

Recovering Ted Attalla's fumble on the St. Mary 27, the Wildcats scored six plays later.

Eight plays into the second quarter, Ray Kapper hit Chuck Lewis in the end zone for the tying TD.

On the first play of the third quarter, Don Clark steamed 55 yards for a TD.

Central scored two more touchdowns in the final quarter.

Ted Attalla lends interference as Mike Braccio sets sail around left end for a substantial gain.

CANTON on long end

Showing top form the Crusaders scored two plays after the opening kickoff on a 69 yard Braccio run.

Canton came back with a score minutes later on a 41 yard pass.

In the second quarter Ted Attala recovered a fumble which Ray Kapper turned into a touchdown.

In the remainder of the game both teams scored once again but the final score favored Canton 20-12.

HAMILTON

On October 31, the Crusaders took on Hamilton Central Catholic on the latter's home field and came out on the short end by a 58-20 verdict. The Crusaders gave it a go for three quarters, and went into the fourth period trailing by 10 points. The Hamiltonians pushed over four touchdowns and as many extra points.

IRISH win

November 5 was again the setting for the annual Rubber City Parochial Football Clash between St. Vincent and St. Mary. Although the final score was 33-6, in favor of St. Vincent, the Crusaders never allowed the Irish to take it easy.

St. Mary punted out of trouble late in the fourth period. On the first play from scrimmage, a Frank Kremblas pass was intercepted by Jack Stewart who returned the ball 59 yards to the St. Vincent 16 yard line. On the next play Ray Kapper passed to Jim O'Conner to give St. Mary it's lone touchdown of the fracas.

BUCS EDGED

St. Mary and Hower went at it tooth and nail on November 12, with the Crusaders eeking out a 27-25 victory to finish the season in a blaze of glory. The right toe of tackle, Bill Craig, brought the Crusaders home in front. Ray Kapper's aerials twice found Chuck Lewis all alone in the end zone for two of the touchdowns. In the third period, Kapper snuck over from the three, and passed for a fourth touchdown to Leo Firth in the last quarter to close out the high-scoring tilt.

OPENER

On December 3, St. Mary Basketballers inaugurated the basketball season by taking on East in the Crusader gym. East had quarter leads of 13-8, 24-15, and 40-38. Then the Crusaders rallied in the final stanza to knot the count twice before a 3 point spurt by East's Billy Hammonds in the last 30 seconds dashed any hope for victory as the final score read 60-57. DeLuca and Nemeth collected 19 and 17 points respectively to lead the St. Mary attack.

Bill Craig and Larry Logsdon show attentiveness as Coach Ned Endress explains a basic fundamental.

VICTORY
In Overtime

St. Mary's cagers notched their first victory of the season by nosing out Ellet in an overtime thriller, 73-70 on the latter's court. On the extra period Joe Nemeth and Bill DeLuca scored fielders for the Crusaders, DeLuca again with a free throw and John Rainey's two gratis tosses to ice the victory. Bill DeLuca was high with 23, followed by Rainey with 18.

CATS WIN

Friday, December 17 at Memorial Hall, St. Mary's tackled Central and came out on the short end by 55-46. Although the difference was nine points, the Crusaders fought gamely all the way, but just couldn't find the hoop. Nemeth was high for St. Mary's with 14 tallies.

SAINTS ROLL

St. Mary's found the going easy December 28 against a tall Toledo Catholic team by rolling to an easy 74-60 win. Rebounding in fine fashion the Crusaders lead all the way after trailing by 1 point, 21-20 at the end of the first quarter. Bill DeLuca, Joe Nemeth, and John Rainey fixed the big guns for St. Mary's as the threesome caged 24, 17, and 15 points respectively.

GARFIELD

Led by big Manzie Winters, Garfield handed the highly toated Crusaders their third loss in four starts.

The Crusaders managed to pull up behind a 9-6 count by the end of the first stanza. Although the South side boys began to spurt things up in the second frame, the Presidents still held the lead 23-14.

With the Prexies firing from out in the third stanza, the Crusaders were still on the short end of a 37-32 count.

The fourth quarter found Chuck Lewis accounting for the only tally the Crusaders scored in that stanza. From there on the Presidents turned the game into a romp.

CRUSADERS
Bad Night

January 7 at Memorial Hall, the Crusaders found the going rough against their South Akron rivals and came out on the short end of a 67-47 score. With the absence of Bill DeLuca, out for the season with a broken wrist, Ray Kapper tried mightily to hold the Crusaders together. Kapper ended up as high man for St. Mary's with 12 markers, 10 coming in the third period.

Mike Taray eyes basket cautiously as shot is attempted by teammate.

Chuck Lewis surrounds an unidentified opponent during a tense moment of the game.

CLOSE WIN

Joe Nemeth came through in the clutch to lead St. Mary's to a 40-37 victory over Canton Catholic's Cagers. With 20 seconds to go in the ball game Nemeth caged a fielder and a free throw to give St. Mary's their third win in seven starts and end up as high man with 13.

CARDS DOWNED

January 11 found the Crusaders journeying to Kenmore and coming out on top, 51-44. After a nip and tuck ball game, St. Mary's found the range in the last period to win going away. Joe Nemeth lead the final charge, caging five field goals and five free throws to end up as high scorer with 18 points.

HOWER
Trips Saints

Hower visited St. Mary's gym on January 14 and much to the surprise of everyone took a hard fought verdict, 41-35. After an almost stand-still third period, which found Hower caging four points and St. Mary's two the Buccaneers spurted in the last stanza to give them their 6 point margin of victory. Chuck Lewis with 10 points lead St. Mary's

CRUSADERS
In Close One

St. Mary's held on for a 51-47 victory January 22, over Youngstown on the loser's home floor. The contest was close throughout the entire ball game and a last minute spurt saved the day for the Crusaders. Joe Nemeth came up with his greatest performance of the season, gathering 25 points to lead the Crusader attack.

Ned Endress is giving advice and pep to John Rainey, Chuck Lewis, Joe Nemeth, Jim O'Conner, and Bill DeLuca during time out, as Pete McMahon does his share.

Kangaroo Rainey attempts rebound as teammate Larry Logsdon lends assistance.

GRIFFS EDGED

St. Mary's combination of 18 point men, Chuck Lewis and Joe Nemeth, proved too much for Buchtel to overcome and the Crusaders notched victory number seven, 58-54.

IRISH TOP ST. M'S

The Irish dropped the Crusaders at Memorial Hall on January 26 by 49-39. Hitting 40 per cent of their shots, the West Siders steadily pulled ahead despite Joe Nemeth's efforts, who ended up with 18 points, high for the Crusaders. Although St. Vincent's took the first of a two game series for the parochial title, the Irish were in for a surprise at Goodyear Gym on February 20.

ST. JOE'S DOWN

January 29 found Cleveland St. Joseph's visiting the Crusader gym and much to their dismay were held to 11 points in the second half. The Crusader defense jelled in the last two stanzas and this was the signal for Joe Nemeth to go to work. The big center eventually took high scoring honors with 15.

Lewis leaps high to tap rebound back to teammate.

Bob Dangel anxiously awaits the results of a scrap between an unidentified St. Mary's player and a St. Joseph's player.

COMETS BOW

St. Mary's, led by Ray Kappers hot hand in the third quarter spilled Coventry, 50-43 at Memorial Hall. Kapper eventually ended up as high man with 17 tallies, after giving the St. Mary combine a 37-29 bulge going into the last period. It was the Crusaders eighth win in fourteen outings.

MAGICS TILTED

St. Mary's froze their way toward their ninth victory at Memorial Hall on February 11 by surprising Barberton 57-55 in a well played ball game. If it wasn't for Joe Nemeth's injury in the third quarter the Crusaders would have coasted home. Barberton cut the lead to two points in the last minute and a half but St. Mary's guarded the ball carefully for victory number nine. Kapper with 18 points paced the Crusader attack.

INJURED

Joe Nemeth suffered a broken ankle in the Barberton contest and was sidelined for the remainder of the season.

STOW TROUNCED

With Ray Kapper dumping in 22 points, the Crusaders roared past Stow in a 76-51 romp on the Crusaders' floor.

St. Mary's enjoyed quarter leads of 26-10, 38-15, and 57-25 inspite of the futile efforts on the part of the Bulldogs.

INJURED

A sad blow was dealt to the basketball team when it was discovered that Bill DeLuca had cracked a small bone in his wrist. At the time of the accident Bill was the teams leading scorer.

IRISH EDGED

In a double overtime thriller at Goodyear Gym February 20, Chuck Lewis sank two charity tosses to give St. Mary a well deserved victory to close out the season. After leading by 4 points at the close of the first quarter, the Crusaders left the floor at half-time trailing the Irish by 3. Going into the final stanza the Crusaders were down by 4, 42-38, but turned on the steam to even the count at 52 all as regulation time ran out. The score was knotted at 56 apiece at the end of the first overtime period, but Lewis was fouled by Frank Kremblas in the sudden-death period and calmly pushed in the winning points to ice the game.

SUCCESS !!

St. Mary's swimmers, under co-captains Ray Steinkerchner and John Neff, completed one of their most successful seasons in a great while. Winding up with a final record of eight wins and one loss, the splashes showered fine spirit and ability. The Crusaders' one loss was suffered at the hands of Cuyahoga Falls, the main cause being the three disqualifications suffered by St. M's. Three of the Crusaders went unbeaten in dual meet competition. John Neff at 50 and 100 yards freestyle distances. Tom Neff at the 200 yard freestyle, Tom Boyce in the 100 yard breaststroke and the 150 yard individual medley.

We won by golly! Jubiliant Crusaders Dick Yoho, Ray Steinkerchner, Tom Neff, and Frank Rotunda rejoice after a victory against Cuyahoga Falls.

At the Greater Akron City Finals the Crusaders really showed their force, taking 3 firsts, a second, and a third.

In the North Eastern Ohio district finals the Crusaders placed third of 14 teams, washing out favored Wooster by 20 points. Here the 200 yard freestyle relay team of Hank Gadel, Ray Steinkerchner, Jack Conroy, and Pat Dempsey edged out their Buchtel rivals who had previously beaten them at the City Meet.
